Selectmen Opt For Consultant On Cablevision License

By Sue Aucella Deacon

The two cable television companies competing for Andover's 15-year franchise have agreed to share the cost of hiring a consultant, at the selectmen's request, to study the companies' financial statements.

Rollins Cablevision, the company which earned the Cable Advisory Committee's recommendation, reluctantly agreed to help pay for the consultant because "we don't think we have any choice," Rollins counsel George Shinney told selectmen Monday night.

The public hearing on the cable license remains open, and the selectmen will seek a 30-day extension on their Nov. 18 deadline for awarding the license.

After failing to win the advisory committee's recommendation, Continental Cablevision last week suggested that the selectmen call in a consultant to compare the two companies' financial proposals.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark agreed that it would be "prudent" to retain a consultant to study the companies' financial statements, because that would "assure that we will not be passing on (unreasonable) rate increases to consumers in future years."

The selectmen Monday night asked both companies to submit lists of potential consultants to the town manager as soon as possible. If the two lists do not include at least one match, the advisory committee and manager will meet with representatives of both companies to choose a consultant, Clark said.

State Cable TV Commissioner Jeffrey Forbes appeared before the selectmen at this week's meeting to offer his thoughts on hiring a consultant. Forbes advised the board that applicants could pay for a consultant if they did so voluntarily. "But it would give me some pause if the town wanted to order an applicant to pay for a consultant."

Continental representative Robert Stengel, director of government affairs, proposed that both companies pay for the consultant, both to insure that the consultant would be objective, and because it would be "more equitable." However, he added that his company would pay the entire cost "if Rollins chooses not to."

After a brief hallway conference, Rollins representatives agreed to pay half the consultant's fees. However, they also offered a "counter-proposal": that the selectmen award the provisional license to Rollins, and hire a consultant to study the company's finances during the probationary period.

Under these conditions, Rollins would pay the full consultant's fees, Shinney said.

The selectmen, however, opposed the idea of either company paying the full cost, and rejected Rollins' proposal.

The two companies also disagreed on the cost of hiring a consultant: while Stengel suggested the fees might total $2,000, Shinney maintained that the fee might be as high as $30,000.

That cost will ultimately "be passed on to the citizens of Andover (as part of) the rate structure" of either company, Shinney warned.

The applicants and town officials also remain unclear on the depth of the study the consultant must undertake.

Continental's Stengel said that a consultant could reach a conclusion after only "one week's work. The consultant would simply look at the internal consistency (of the applications) and the financial considerations."

Commissioner Forbes, however, said a consultant might have to look at the applications as a whole to determine their financial feasibility.

"The other major problem is that you will be asking the consultant to make some assumptions about the future, 15

Andover Follows Trends Supporting Reagan; Prop 2½

By Sue Aucella Deacon

Ronald Reagan swept Andover along in his landslide victory, winning more than 51 percent of the town's vote. With 13,793 voters turning out at the polls — 82 percent of the town's registered voters — 7,117 ballots were cast for the president-elect.

President Carter won a little over 29 percent of Andover's vote, with 4,026 ballots cast in his favor, while John Anderson fared better than he did in the rest of the state, garnering over 17 percent of the vote, with 2,397 votes.

Andover voters, following statewide sentiment, voted a resounding "yes" on question two, the controversial Proposition 2½. That ballot question won nearly 60 percent of the town vote, with 8,234 ballots cast in favor of the tax-cutting referendum question.

In the Fifth Congressional district, incumbent James Shannon won nearly 58 percent of the vote in Andover, with William Sawyer taking 36 percent of the vote.

Senator Robert Buell of the First Essex and Middlesex district won nearly 51 percent of the Andover vote, while William Gustus took more than 39 percent in that district.

In addition to their "yes" vote on Proposition 2½, Andover voters also favored question one, rights for the handicapped, by more than 58 percent; and question five, limiting the state's power to mandate local programs, by more than 64 percent.

Andover voters turned thumbs down on the legislative pay raise, ballot question four, by a loud-and-clear 81 percent; on question three, an alternative to 2½, by nearly 62 percent; and on question six, which would change the legislative procedure for emergency votes, by 61 percent.

While townspeople turned out at the polls in impressive numbers, very few appeared at town hall Tuesday night to await the results.

At nine p.m., as the first returns were Beginning The Road...

President-Elect Ronald Reagan addressing testimonial dinner for Retired Police Chief David L. Nicoll at the Sheraton Rolling Green, Andover last February. The road to the White House is a long one and Reagan was staying at the Andover motel-conference center while campaigning in the New Hampshire primary. He decided to stop by the Nicoll banquet at the end of a long Saturday. The candidate realigned his staff and began his Granite State campaign early after suffering a defeat in Iowa to George Bush who ultimately became his vice presidential running mate.

Open House Shows Y Fall Program

An open house will be held by the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. to kick off its late fall program. Heidi Wolfman, executive director at the "Y", announced that the event will take place on Saturday, Nov. 8 from 6 to 9:30 p.m.

During the school year, the Andover-North Andover Y.M.C.A. operates four eight-week program terms. Each term many new programs are offered and regular programs are re-scheduled.

"We are very excited about the many programs we are able to offer and have planned this open house for everyone who would like a first-hand sampling," said

Mrs. Wolfman.

During the open house many programs will be demonstrated. The "Y" Progressive Swimming program will be conducted in the pool including the new Parent/Pre-School swimming classes for ages one year to four years. The "Y" gymnastic team will provide an exhibition in the gymnasium utilizing a full range of equipment and techniques taught in the "Y" gymnastics classes.

Adult classes including Dance Aerobics and Karate will also be demonstrated. Mrs. Wolfman noted that the open house will be more than just an opportunity to tour the building. "We are aware of many new residents in the Andover/North Andover area who deserve an opportunity to see our programs in operation, meet the professional and volunteer staff, and ask questions; this is a time we have dedicated to invite the greater Andover community to learn what their Y.M.C.A. is all about," said Mrs. Wolfman.

From 8:30 to 9:30 p.m. an open family swim and family fun and games in the gym will be held. Registrations for all programs will be taken during the open house.

More information may be secured by contacting the "Y" at 165 Haverhill St., Andover.

Energy Group Plans Solar Slide Show

Merrimack Valley Solar Energy Association is offering a slide show of local solar energy projects on Wednesday, Nov. 12 at 7:30 p.m. at the Greater Lawrence Vocational Technical School on River Road in Andover in room L4.

Fred Snell will show pictures and comment on solar projects already built in the Merrimack Valley. The program is free and open to the public.

MVSEA is a non-profit organization recently formed by a group of homeowners, do-it-yourselfers, renters, business people, contractors and solar professionals. After the slide show all are welcome to an informal get-together for exchange of information.

MVSEA's purpose is to promote energy conservation, cost-effective solar heating and other renewable energy use locally. The group publishes a newsletter, offers hands-on workshops and tours of local solar projects.

Acting officers are coordinator Fred Snell, assistant coordinator Betty Drake, secretary Jack Kuchar, treasurer Gene Avrett and newsletter and publicity Julie Morse and Betty Drake. For further information about plans and membership, contact any of the officers.

Bus Service

The following schedule will be in effect on Veteran's Day, Tuesday, Nov. 11: local bus service will operate on a Saturday schedule, Andover Weebus service will operate on its regular schedule and commuter rail service will operate on its holiday (Sunday) schedule.

We Owe MBTA $250 For Bit Of Their Land

The MBTA owns a slice of land in the middle of the intersection of Essex and School Streets, the town manager learned recently — and the T intends to collect a yearly rent of $250 on that land.

The town should therefore consider acquiring the land, which would require town meeting approval, the manager suggested to the selectmen Monday night.

Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark said he was inspired to consider town purchase of the land when he received the T's bill for $250. "The cheapest way to resolve the problem would be to take the land," he explained.

The land, located in front of the railroad depot, is of "no conceivable use" to the MBTA and of "negligible" value, Clark reported to the selectmen. It could not be used as a parking lot, he said.

The manager added that the cost to the town of having the land appraised, which is necessary before the town can acquire it, will probably be greater than the value of the land.

Selectmen Have Eyes On Spring

With a special town meeting now two weeks away, town officials already have an eye on the annual town meeting, to be held in the spring.

The selectmen Monday night reviewed a number of proposed warrant articles for the spring meeting, at the town manager's request.

Although the articles will not be inserted onto the warrant until some time from now, beginning the review process now will help reduce the selectmen's workload in January and February, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark pointed out.

Conservationists Assigned To The Woods

The Conservation Committee has been named the town's Special Town Forest Committee in response to a state statute, passed by the legislature last year, requiring every community to appoint such a committee.

Since Andover does not have any land specifically designated as a town forest, Community Director of Community Development and Planning Rhys Kear Monday night confessed that he is "unclear" about the purpose of the new committee.

Nevertheless, the committee was appointed "as part of our continuing efforts to cooperate with the state," Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark reported to the selectmen.

Silverman Extends Apology

Selectman Jerry Silverman Monday night publicly apologized for what he called his "personal attack" on Milton Greenberg of the Andover Tax Relief Committee during last week's selectmen's meeting.

The selectman last week interrupted Greenberg's minority report in favor of Proposition 2½ to call Greenberg's statement "hearsay" and "propaganda."

The majority of the Tax Relief Committee had recommended that the selectmen oppose the tax-cutting referendum question.

Silverman, calling his remarks of last week "unwarranted," Monday night said he had sent a letter of apology to Greenberg, and commended the citizen for his work on the committee.

Mame Opens Tonight

The Andover Community Theatre will present "Mame" on Nov. 6, 7 and 8, 8 p.m. at the Andover East Junior High. The musical features many well-known numbers — "Mame", "We Need A Little Christmas," "Bosom Buddies" and "My Best Girl." The show tells the colorful story of Mame, her best friend, Vera, her nephew, Patrick and his nanny, Gouch. "Mame" also includes many spectacular dance numbers.

Mame is directed by Anita McDuffie who also directed last summer's productions of Carousel and the Fantastics. In addition to last summer's shows, Anita also directed "Bye Bye Birdie."

Mame is played by Alva Houston and supported by Tim Donovan, Pat Sullivan, Maureen Brackett, Ed Winters, Marshall Darling, Elliot Winnick, Paula Cambell, Chris DiGrazia, Cheryl Graham and Bill Joubert, Jr.

The dance numbers have been choreographed by Patty Anderson. Dancers and chorus include Grace Clancy, Barbara White, Steve Daly, Ron Wackowski, Jane Hoffman, Terry Enright, Louise Hadad, Carolyn Mattedi, Pat Perrault, Claire Valcourt, A.J. Sullivan, Robbie Tiechert, Paul Dollard, Alice Ziady, and Ann Wilde.

Tickets for "Mame" are available at the following stores — Cole's Hardware, Thompson's, and Ligetts Drug. Also available at the Andover Savings Bank (Main Street branch) and the Department of Community Services Office, 36 Bartlet St. Tickets will be available at the door.

Walking Tour Of Sanctuary

Sarah Fraser Robbins, director of Education at the Peabody Museum of Salem and an active outdoorswoman, will lead the second in a new series of "Living Landscapes" walks Wednesday morning, Nov. 12. Traversing the old Higginson Estate, now the Massachusetts Audubon Society's Wenham Sanctuary, this walk will include a variety of interesting geological features — kettle holes, eskers, a bog and a pond.

Participants will be sent driving directions to the starting point on receipt of advance registration. Those who prefer may call the Museum for directions and pay upon arrival, no later than 9:30 a.m.

Chorale Concert

The North Shore Chorale, conducted by Steve Denson, will present the first concert of the 1980-81 season on Sunday Nov. 16, at the Church-in-the-Cove, Hale St., Beverly. The performance will be at 4 p.m.

There is no charge, though donations are welcome.

To Examine Warrant Articles

The League of Women Voters of Andover will hold informational meetings on Nov. 10 and 13 to examine the issues on the special town meeting warrant.

The league has received numerous inquiries whether the citizens at this special town meeting will be voting on spot zoning or town-wide zoning for condominiums. One issue on the warrant is an amendment to the town's zoning bylaw which would create a new townhouse cluster district. The zoning defined by this amendment could potentially be applied to any parcel of land in town which meets the bylaw

Transit Group Is Named

The appointment of a five-member Transportation and Traffic Advisory Committee was approved by the selectmen Monday night.

Members of the new committee are Police Chief James Johnson, John Avery, Frank Trombly, Theodore Warshaw and Frank Emmert.

The committee will replace the former Traffic Committee, Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark told the selectmen. The committee will advise the manager, selectmen, and planning board regarding all matters involving public transportation, transportation for the elderly and handicapped, traffic rules and regulations and parking.

One member of the committee will also serve as Clark's alternate as Andover's representative to the Merrimack Valley Regional Transit Authority Advisory Board.

The second issue on the special town meeting warrant calls for the rezoning of two land parcels on Andover Street from single residence to this new townhouse cluster district.

The third issue to be discussed at the Nov. 20 special town meeting is a request to rezone property located at 131 Main St.

from single residence A to the general business district.

The league will meet on Monday, Nov. 10 at 9:15 a.m. at the home of Marge Bradshaw, 4 Sioux Circle. The second meeting will be held at 7:45 p.m. on Thursday, Nov. 13, at the home of Marilyn Brody, 3 Carriage Hill Road. These meetings are open to the public.

As long as sale of bonds for the $11.72 million school building project has been postponed, the selectmen would like to see 20-year bids, as well as 10 and 15-year bids, Selectman Edward Harris said Monday night. Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark has said repeatedly that he would like to sell a 10-year issue, to avoid incurring a large, long-term debt for the town.

"We have a number of other large projects coming up down the line," he has explained, adding that he would like to leave the town with the "fairly modest debt" that he inherited as manager.

The selectmen, however, consider a 20-year issue to be a "viable alternative," said Chairman James Abramson, pointing out that 15 and 20-year issues are "the norm" for most municipalities.

"And a lot of municipalities are in a lot of trouble," Clark noted.

Sale of the bonds was recently postponed, pending the outcome of this week's vote on Proposition 2½.

Apple Festival Mini-Fair Planned

"Everything's Coming Up-" not Roses but Apples for a Nov. 15 event at the Andover Baptist Church that will differ somewhat from the traditional Harvest Fair.

The Friendly Circle of the local church is planning an Apple Festival for that Saturday afternoon from 1 to 5 p.m. in the church vestry.

According to Mrs. William Hughes, who is general chairman of the Festival Committee, apple desserts and beverages will be served in the vestry through out the afternoon and, of course, there will be apples and cider for sale also.

The apple theme will be carried out in the decorations and predominantly, though not exclusively, in the gift and bakery items that will be offered for sale. Miss Dorothy Gordon is supervising the decorating, and Mrs. Fred Eastman, Mrs. John Gaudet, Mrs. Robert Stocks, and Mrs. Herbert Witzgall are assisting Mrs. Hughes

Academy Orchestra In Concert

The music department of Phillips Academy will present a concert by the Academy Orchestra this Friday, Nov. 7 at 8 p.m. in Cochran Chapel.

The orchestra will be performing Bach's Brandenburg Concerto, No. 4 for two flutes and violin solo, the Bellini Oboe Concerto, a string orchestra work, Rhapsody by Ralph Vaughn Williams, and the first movement of Beethoven's Symphony No. 8.

The soloists in the Bach are Geoffrey Kidde, flute, Phillips Academy class of 1981, from New York; Katherine Bergeron, flute, Academy Teaching Fellow in Music; and Lilian Wen, violin, Phillips Academy class of 1981, from Worcester.

Joining the orchestra for the Bellini is Peggy Pearson, oboe. Ms. Pearson is one of the most outstanding young musicians of New England. She performs regularly in Boston and New York with the Apple Hill Chambers Players, Cantata Singers, with the Ariel Chamber Ensemble, and as a member of the Emmanuel Wind Quintet.

The orchestra is under the direction of William Thomas, chairman of the Academy's music department.

There is no charge for admission and the public is invited to attend.

Fair At Topsfield

The Sons of Norway, Morgensolen Lodge 545, will sponsor "Nordic Fest," a Scandinavian fair, 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday, Nov. 8, at the 4-H building, Topsfield Fairgrounds.

The fair will feature demonstrations of Scandinavian handicrafts: Potet Lefse, 10:30 a.m.; Hardanger Macrame, 11:45 a.m.; Rosemaling, 1 p.m.; and Krumkake, 2 p.m.

The Nordic Fest is co-chaired by Ethel Olsen of Andover and Paul French of Boxford.

East Junior High Happenings

By Diane Jurgen

Along with the entire country, East Junior High students held elections this past week. Registration was held last week. Results of the election were as follows: On Question 2 to limit state and local taxes on real estate and personal property to 2½ percent, 25 percent of those registered voted yes while 74 percent voted no. In the race for representative from the 5th district to Congress, James Shannon captured 81 percent of the vote, while William Sawyer received 18 percent. In the presidential election, James Carter received 17 percent of the vote, John Anderson received 34 percent, while Ronald Reagan emerged the winner with 46 percent of the vote.

For the past two weeks the guidance counsellors, Mrs. Norma Roberts and Mr. Raymond Danielson, have been meeting with the seventh grade students and their parents to discuss adjustment to junior high. This gives the parents as well as the student an opportunity to ask questions they might have about East Junior High.

Auditions are being held today for the school's annual theatrical production. The director this year will be Mr. Thomas But-ton of the music department.

The final eighth grade soccer game found the team with its best win of the season beating arch-rival West Junior High by a score of 2-1.

The first goal was scored by John Drake. Mark Asquiersson scored the second and winning goal. The team finished the season with six wins and two losses, tying West for first place in the league. Congratulations to coach Rick Jaffe and the team for a super season!

WESTern Roundup

By Mary Driscoll, Kathy Mulvey, Ellen Byrne

The students of West Junior High voiced their opinions on the presidential candidates in a mock election held Monday during lunch periods. Governor Ronald Reagan led the candidates with 215 votes, Representative John Anderson finished second, leaving President Carter with a total of 96 votes.

The Drama Club began its 1980-81 year with several organizational meetings. The members elected Laura Pascarella as their president, Steve Shrestinian as vice president, Caroline Viscosi as secretary, and Anita Mattedias, treasurer. They are starting production of "Big Rock Candy's Mountain" to be performed in mid-February.

The Debating Club has also met several times this season and there seems to be more enthusiasm this year than in the past few years. Five of its members attended a recent "Miller's Court" program on religion and politics which was aired Monday, Nov. 3 at 7:30. Those participating in the debate were Michelle DeVoir, Judy Fournier, Kristen James, Christine McCarthy and Kathy Mulvey.

In a game played Saturday morning, Nov. 1, the ninth grade football team was defeated 14-0 by Chelmsford McCarthy.

The eighth grade soccer team lost in a close game, 2-1, to a tough East team. Jeff Poor scored the lone goal for West and Sara Michelle Sapuppo also played a great game. That being their last game of the season, they finished with an outstanding record of seven wins, two losses.

Wednesday, Oct. 29, the girl's field hockey team concluded its season with a 1-1 standoff against East. Mary Oppel scored the goal with less than three minutes left in the game. She and Debbie Flieder were the team's high scorers for this season. One win, four losses and three ties was the team's final record.

Last Friday, the teachers, playing under Pakistani rules, and the field hockey team clashed, the teachers triumphing 3-1. It was unrecognizable as a field hockey game with the teachers breaking every rule ever written.

It was a busy week for the students of W.J.H., Tuesday's day off being well-deserved.

"I love sunflower seeds," exclaimed Marc Levitan, a first grade student at West Elementary School, during last Friday's Halloween party.

What is special about this year's party? "There is no candy. There are good things for our body," added Leslie Wilkinson, a third grader in Mrs. Crawford's class. These Halloween parties and many others throughout the Andover schools featured nutritious snacks of popcorn, fruit and vegetable slices, sunflower seeds, raisins, and cider.

Talking about the importance of healthful foods during classes and eating these special party snacks, students and teachers together learn that nutritious parties can be very successful and that "these foods are delicious," according to Layne Whitley, another first grader.

This nutritional theme was suggested by the Nutrition Network at the PTO meetings and carried out by teacher, student, and parent cooperation.

The Nutrition Network is a newly organized committee serving the community as a resource in areas of health and nutrition. Its primary goal encourages the maintenance of healthy eating habits while students are in school. Parties, lunches and PTO functions are areas where children can learn more about proper eating habits. Future objectives include formation of research and education committees to collect pertinent information and to disseminate it through newsletters, classes, workshops, and the newspaper. Community response has been positive.

Volunteers are needed to help create new ideas and programs which will further motivate students to maintain good health practices. The support of parents, teachers, administrators, and health professionals is being sought.

Persons interested in learning more about the Nutrition Network are invited to contact Diane DeWitt or Cynthia Melnikas.

SAVINGS

And that calls for a celebration!

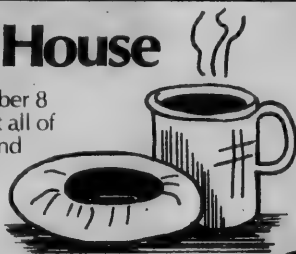

Since 1847, Essex Broadway Savings Bank has always enjoyed a close friendship with the many communities we serve—helping, sharing, growing, looking to the future. And as we've grown, so have our services. In fact, today we're the first bank more and more Greater Lawrence residents turn to for their financial needs. That's why we're changing our name to First Essex Savings Bank. Naturally, behind our new name stands a proud Essex Broadway tradition. At First Essex, our goal will continue to be the same as it was when the Bank was founded nearly six generations ago, to provide you with the best banking service available. We are simply changing our name from one which has served us well in the past to one which will serve us better in the future.

Now our change of name wouldn't be complete without a celebration. So why not join us for all the fun beginning November 1.

An Open House

From November 1 through November 8 we'll be holding an Open House at all of our offices. There'll be free coffee and doughnuts for everyone. Stop in to see the new First Essex Savings look and experience the new First Essex Savings spirit.

Silver for Savers

Join us in our name change celebration and turn your savings into silver. This is your chance to acquire sterling silver jewelry free or at unbelievably low prices. For a limited time we are offering a superb collection of chains, bracelets, and necklaces all in sterling silver. To turn your savings into silver, just make a qualifying deposit in a new or existing savings account or certificate. For more information, stop in at any of our eight convenient offices today.

A First Essex Savings Sweepstakes

Our new name could mean a trip to Bermuda for you. That's only one of the fantastic prizes up for grabs in our Name Change Sweepstakes. Here are the others.

- 1st Prize—5 days and 4 nights in Bermuda for 2
- 2nd Prize—19" GE color portable television
- 3rd Prize—13" GE color portable television

Discusses Geography

Dr. Stuart Lazarus, assistant professor in the school of education and a staff member of the social studies development center at Indiana University in Bloomington, Indiana, met with junior high school social studies students recently to present an overview of the book entitled, World Geography, which he co-authored. Dr. Lazarus also conducted an inservice workshop with social studies teachers that focused on linking physical geography to value decisions and the connection between cultural geography and area value mapping. Because of the interest in the book and in Dr. Lazarus' work in general, area social studies teachers joined Andover teachers at this session.

On Honors List At No. Essex

A number of local residents are among 208 students who have been appointed to the president's honors list through spring, 1980, at Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill.

From Andover, the students include Allison Bailey of 30 Gray Road, Carol Burke of 1 Foster's Pond, Nancy Mattes of 8 Russett Lane, Judith McConkey of 60 Chestnut St., Patricia O'Connor of 4 Twin Brooks Circle and Elizabeth Prout of 13 William St.

Also from Andover: Joan Radula of 141 North St., Eric Runge, Pamela Traill of 497 South Main St., Ruth Wierenga of 38 Sheridan Road, Betty Wilson of 20 Colonial Drive and Gerlinde Wirth of 20 Brown St.

From North Andover, the honors students include William Dolan of 28 Turnpike St., Ann Keating of 381 Summer St., Melanie Lipof of 25 Farrwood Ave., Elaine MacLean of 57

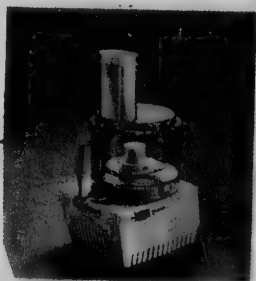

Turnpike St., John McManus of 94 Peter St., and Sandra Meldrum of 28 Cedar Lane.

Also from North Andover: Denise Regan of 30 Royal Crest, Dorothy Taglione of 905 Great Pond Road, Delphine Towne of 234 Brentwood Circle and Jane Vaillancourt of 34 Bunker Hill St.

Each of the honors students has maintained a cumulative grade average of 3.75 or above, out of a possible 4.0, through the spring 1980 semester. The students have also taken at least 10 credit hours of work and are studying full or part-time in the college's Day Division or Division of Continuing Education and Community Services.

REACTION TO THE MERGER OF LAWRENCE AND MERRIMACK EFFECTIVE NOVEMBER TENTH.

LAWRENCE:

"I knew it was coming. Someone on the inside told me. It's big news alright. It'll mean changes, but everything is for the better. What do you think they'll call it... Lawrrimack?"

ANDOVER:

"Maybe it'll be on Eyewitness News or something. It does mean better services you know. I've got to get home to watch the news... gee, I hope Tony does the story."

NORTH ANDOVER:

"Yes, I've heard. Sounds great! It's good for business. You know, my daughter could design a terrific logo..."

METHUEN:

"Wow! Outstanding move. What can I say? I wish we had more of it in Methuen. I'll tell everyone I know. I can't wait to see how it plays in City Hall."

AHS Notebook

By Laurie Lewis

'Flight,' the theme of the 1981 Andover High School Yearbook is interpreted as independence and soaring creativity. This year's yearbook is trying to incorporate the whole school rather than just the senior class.

The yearbook staff has made quite a few changes that they hope will sell even more books. For the first time ever, there will be pictures of every junior and sophomore homeroom. As a matter of fact, the editors of the underclass section, Beth Lancaster and Tracy Padva, will have to organize a total of 28 pages devoted strictly to sophomores and juniors.

There will also be a new section entitled 'Student Life,' which will contain pictures of the prom, people at work, homecoming, special features, and so forth.

There are many people contributing to the process of collating the yearbook. Charles Wettergreen, an English teacher at the high school is the advisor, Sally O'Brien, a Spanish teacher, is the assistant advisor, Jean Dunlavy and Janet Perry are the editors-in-chief, Beth Clough and Nicole Romito are the creative section editors, Lauren Whitley is the activities editor, Mary Beth Boland and Jonathon Kent are the sports editors, Lauren Liberman is the faculty editor, Dawn Butler and Susan Brody are the senior editors, and Laurel Swan is in charge of the photography. In total, there are more than 35 students involved.

It is expected the photography this year will be the best it has ever been. A photographer from Loring Studios has been circulating through the school taking candid.

Between $13 and $14,000 must be raised

Members Night For Audubon

The Massachusetts Audubon Society will hold a 'Members' Night' Wednesday, Nov. 12 from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. at Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary in Topsfield.

The program will begin with a slide presentation on international wildlife conservation by Gerard Bertrand, president of the Society. Dr. Bertrand will then discuss Massachusetts Audubon's work and activities in Essex County and across the state. A question and answer period will follow.

Admission to "Members' Night" is free and refreshments will be served. All Massachusetts Audubon members and interested people are invited. Ipswich River Wildlife Sanctuary is located on Perkins Row off U.S. 1 in Topsfield.

Rosemary Janneti, editor of the advertising section, hopes that she and her staff can raise about $3,500 from advertising. The rest of the money is raised by the selling of at least 800 books. Usually the senior class purchases around 400, and the juniors and sophomores about 400 between them. Also, approximately $800 is contributed by patrons, donors, and benefactors, whose names will be listed in the back of the yearbook.

The first deadline will be Dec. 1. At that time, we must have 48 of the 256 pages ready to submit to the publishers. On December 24, an additional 58 pages must be completed and prepared for the printers. If a deadline is missed, it costs money, but more importantly, we risk not having the yearbook shipped on the May 20 date that has been set.

Advisor Charles Wettergreen states, "The yearbook is a very demanding process. It is time consuming, but the final product makes it worthwhile. Knowing that people will enjoy the yearbook for years to come is gratifying to everyone who participates."

Publishes Booklets

Marcia Hohn of Andover is the author of two recently published booklets for use at Essex Agricultural High School. These career education guides entitled "Planning a Career in Agriculture/Agribusiness" and "Agriculture Guide Manual" will be used by students and faculty with agricultural vocation programs. Ms. Hohn is also co-author of a "Guide to Manpower Training" and she is currently responsible for an area demonstration project on job sharing. Nicholas A. Rizzo, Andover, chairman of the Institute's board of trustees, commended her on completion of this Federal grant program.

Gives Aid To Handicapped

Diane Warlick of North Andover is one of six Boston University law students staffing a new program at the Walter E. Fernald State School for the mentally retarded in Waltham.

The program, which offers free legal services to the 1,000 Fernald residents, is designed to aid them in terms of improving treatment, housing, training and access to the community.

Warlick, a third year law student, will also be working to implement the existing and new state and federal regulations regarding the mentally retarded. She and her colleagues will not be paid for their services but will receive academic credit for their involvement in the clinic. sponsored by the Legal Aid Program of the Boston University Law School, the Fernald School Corporation and Greater Boston Legal Services.

Warlick is a 1971 graduate of the University of South Carolina's school of nursing. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Trace of Hanover, Pa.

Elder Explorer

The early American explorer John Cabot was 73 when he became the first European since Viking times to reach Southern Greenland, and then he crossed to North America and followed the coast south to what is now Delaware.

Salem Artists

Paintings by Racket Shreve and John Hutchinson, two Salem artists whose work reflects the city's maritime heritage, is a new exhibit at the Peabody Museum of Salem.

Both Shreve and Hutchinson are members of the American Society of Marine Artists and base their paintings on extensive research of the vessels they choose as subjects. Their nostalgic paintings of turn-of-the-century sailing craft, from Edwardian yachts to Gloucester fishing schooners, add a fresh dimension to the Museum's permanent maritime collections.

The earliest Chinese coins were made in the shapes of knives and spades, indicating, experts say, that such objects had previously been used in bartering.

High School Students Build Boardwalk

There is a new boardwalk on the Deer Jump Reservation nature trail. It is the result of the cooperation of several groups and the work of a number of Andover High School students.

Deer Jump is an AVIS reservation in West Andover. The trail is the creation of the Andover High School Ecology Club. Six years ago, the club built a wooden walk through a section of swamp. It deteriorated to the point that it had to be replaced. The new boardwalk is made of water resistant wood bolted to used car tires which form the base.

AVIS provided the materials and students did the work. The wooden sections were assembled by Fred Bauer's woodworking classes. The Ecology Club ripped out the old walkway and cleared a roadway to the project site. Brian Bebout of Chandler Road supervised the construction of the new boardwalk. The tires were donated by Merchant Tire Co. of Lawrence.

A great number of students participated in the project. Among those who gave special effort were Ecology Club President Jody Landers, Michelle Barron, John Maginnis, Rickie Morano, Michael Rotundi, Greg Shionis, Jon Weiner and Ted Liszewski.

Monkeys See

The Lincoln Park Zoo in Chicago once tried using one-way glass in the monkey house, so that people could see in but the animals couldn't see out. The monkeys became despondent, but regained their lively spirits when the glass was removed.

In New Exhibit

"The Coming Storm," an 1869 oil painting by Albert Bierstadt, is part of the exhibit of 19th century American paintings, drawings and photographs, which will open tomorrow at The Addison Gallery of American Art, Phillips Academy.

Second Exhibit In Special Series Opens

The second in a series of special exhibits marking the Addison Gallery of American Art's 50th anniversary, opens tomorrow on the campus of Phillips Academy.

"Visions of the New Land" features landscape paintings, drawings and photographs by 19th century American artists, including William Dunlap, Thomas Doughty, Asher B. Durand, Thomas Cole, J. F. Kensett, Martin J. Heade, Worthington Whittredge, Jasper Francis Cropsey, Sanford R. Gifford, Frederick E. Church and George Inness.

The exhibit will officially open with a reception at tomorrow evening from 7 to 9 o'clock, and will continue through Dec. 7.

Two other exhibits will coincide with "visions": "Heads," which demonstrates some of the many ways the human head has been treated in drawing, prints, painting, sculpture and photography, and "Work Produced by Kenan Grant and Sabatinal Recipients."

"heads" is based largely on works from the Addison Collection, with some borrowed from individuals and institutions.

The works by Phillips Academy teachers include ceramics by Audrey Bensley, drawings illustrating stories of I.B. Singer by Gerald Shertzer, photographs of the Gold Coast by Stephen Wicks, and large format color photographs by James Sheldon.

The Addison is open free to the public.

Hospital

Where can you find freshly baked pastries, Christmas novelties, hand knit and boutique items?

At the New England Memorial Hospital Auxiliary's annual Holly Fair on Thursday, Nov. 13 from 10 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Held in the Stoneham hospital's main lobby, the fair also features jewelry, toys and books, refreshments and assorted white elephant items.

Proceeds will go towards the Auxiliary's pledge to provide the hospital with needed diagnostic equipment.

Persons interested in donating baked goodies or other handiwork may contact the volunteer office at NEMH.

READ THIS, AND GIVE IT A GRADE

The sum of all known reverence I add up in you, whoever you are.

The people who govern are there for you; it is not you who are there for them; All architecture is what you do to it when you look upon it; All music is what awakes from you when you are reminded by the instruments.

The sun and stars that float in the open air; The apple shaped earth and we upon it; The wonder everyone sees in everyone else's face, and the wonders that fill each minute of time forever.

It is for you, whoever you are — it is no further from you than you hearing and sight are from you.

It is hinted by nearest, commonest, readiest.

We consider bibles and religious divine — I do not say they are not divine: I say they have all grown out of you, and may grow out of you still. It is not they who give the life — it is you who give the life.

Will you seek after off? You surely come back at last, in things best known to you, finding the best, or as good as the best — Happiness, knowledge, not in another place, but this place — not for another hour, but this hour.

IF YOU GAVE THESE THOUGHTS A B+ or better you might find the UNITARIAN UNIVERSALIST CHURCH of interest. We UUs look at life as Walt Whitman did, and express that search through our time together on Sundays at 10:30 a.m. We're at 244 Lowell Street [Rte 133] in Andover. Or call 475-4454 for more information.

November Concerts At Lowell

Nine musical performances are scheduled in November at the University of Lowell — all free and open to the public.

Unless otherwise indicated below, the concerts will be held at 8 p.m. in the Recital Hall of Durgin Hall, located at Pawtucket and Wilder Streets in Lowell. These concerts feature faculty and student musicians from the University of Lowell College of Music as well as special guest artist.

On Nov. 6, the Brass Ensemble will take the stage, followed by a violin recital by Virginia Loiselle on Nov. 10, and the Consortium Artis Musicae and Collegiate Chorale, led by Robert White, on Nov. 12.

On Nov. 13, Kay George Roberts and Ruth Ashley will conduct a joint performance by the String Orchestra and Vocal Chamber Ensemble.

The scene switches to Cumnock Hall on University Avenue in Lowell on Nov. 17, when Fred Buda will conduct Studio Orchestra II in concert. It's back to the Recital Hall in Durgin Hall on Nov. 20 as the Concert Choir hits the spotlight.

Nov. 24, violinist Verena Drobnik offers a recital, and November's final concert features the Opera Studio, directed by Ivan Oak, at 7:30 p.m. on Nov. 25.

For more information call the College of Music.

Program On Women At Exeter

A one-woman lecture-demonstration entitled "Women I Have Known" by Ms. Tulis Sessions, will be presented by Phillips Exeter Academy's Special Events Series Sunday evening, Nov. 9, in the Fisher Theater at 7 p.m.

Sessions has presented her "Women I Have Known" for five seasons and this is her second appearance at Exeter. Among the women she portrays are Anne Hutchinson, a Puritan woman banished from the colony of Massachusetts for radical religious views; Lucy Stone, first to define the goals of the Women's Movement in the 1870s; Sojourner Truth, an escaped slave with an opinion on everything; Katherine Houghton Hepburn, who led a crusade against the brothels; Victoria Woodhull, who dreamed of running for president and became a wealthy NYC financier; and the founder of Planned Parenthood, Margaret Sanger. Sessions has done a great deal of research into the lives of these women, and from the anecdotes, memorable quotes, and noteworthy achievements, has put together a short vignette about each.

The vignettes, for the most part serious, even impassioned statements on women in American life, are strung together with non-stop commentary by a person who Sessions calls "Everywoman."

"Everywoman" completely steals the show. Sessions herself is a fair-skinned woman with blond hair. "Everywoman" is an old, gnarled, drawling black woman with a sharp, irreverent wit, boundless patience, and a gift of gab that won't quit.

This is not a show for women only. In her own words Sessions says, "I'm 'tickled to death' to have men in the audience. Not having men there would be like a black person doing black history without any whites seeing it. I'm not saying 'You male — listen to what your male ancestors did.' I don't want to lecture; I want them to have a good time."

At the same time, the audiences she's most uncomfortable with are those with militant females who expect a more radical statement. "Sure, I can sit down and carry on about men and all the injustices," she says, "but that's not the point of the show. I'm here to point out some facts — wave a little flag — and say, 'You listen to this, this happened. Be aware that these women existed and that they achieved great things.'"

The show is open to the public without charge for admission.

Fine Arts Auction

A Fine Arts Auction and Antiques Appraisals will be held on Collectors' Sunday, Nov. 23, at the Copley Plaza Hotel, Boston, to benefit the Building Fund of The Copley Society, America's oldest art association.

Antiques appraisals will be held from 1 to 5 p.m. by Phillips International Fine Art Auctioneers and Appraisers, followed by the auction at 6 with celebrity presenters and Phillips International auctioneers.

The public is invited. All auction items will be exhibited at the Copley Society Gallery, 158 Newbury St., Boston, the week prior to auction, Nov. 14 to 22, from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m.

Pippin

A benefit performance of the award winning Broadway play "Pippin" will be held at the Salem State College Theatre on Saturday, Nov. 15 at 8 p.m. A special reception will follow the performance and all proceeds will go to the Family Counseling and Guidance Centers. For ticket information contact the Family Counseling and Guidance Center, 6 State Road, Danvers.

Helping Regional Theatre

What do you do when you're looking for something to keep you busy and you don't want to go back to work? You could try what Kathy Tarro does. She's on the board of directors of the Merrimack Regional Theatre, a non-profit professional theatre located in Lowell, and as a volunteer, she puts in a full forty-hour week.

"I never knew how hard these people worked until I offered to help out with program advertising and subscription sales," said Mrs. Tarro, wife of oral surgeon Dr. Allen Tarro.

As an Andover resident for the past 11 years, Kathy has been actively involved with community affairs for some time. She has been the chairperson for the Merrimack Valley Cancer Society and is currently membership chairperson for the Merrimack Valley for the Sidney Farber Cancer Institution of Boston. In addition, Kathy has been involved with the Ladies of St. Joseph's Hospital and Ladies of Merrimack College.

"I was approached by the theatre early in 1979, during its inaugural season," said Mrs. Tarro. "People who had worked with me on other community projects had passed my name on to Mark Kaufman (MRT's artistic director) and Nancy Donahue (president of the theatre's board). When they asked if I'd like to help out, I thought that the theatre sounded like a terrific idea. The Merrimack Valley needed a professional performing arts organization. I figured that I'd be able to help out with fundraising and things like that."

Kathy has proven to be more than just a helping hand. Her work for the theatre has been invaluable. During this past pre-season, Kathy arranged all of the subscription coffees and business luncheons that marketing director David Balsom calls "cultural tupperware parties." The purpose of these informal presentations was to acquaint potential subscribers and theatre goers with MRT's upcoming season. Mrs. Tarro was also responsible for selling program advertising to area merchants, and singlehandedly sold the entire program for the season. In addition to her fundraising activities, she also serves on the executive committee of the theatre's board of directors.

Kathy is a dedicated "workaholic." Her activities don't end with the theatre. She also teaches Christian doctrine classes at St. Augustine's Church in Andover. In her free time Kathy enjoys redecorating her home and is an avid tennis player.

When asked about her schedule, and the possible reasons behind it, Kathy confesses, "I have to have more than just a home and a family. For some people that's enough, but I need a home life as well as something to involve me with the outside world. I've always been like that. I've always made time to take on projects, but always a project that will benefit other people in the community. It's important. I obviously enjoy my work at the theatre. It's like giving birth to a project and seeing it crawl and then walk — motherhood with different labor pains!"

Library Drive Launched

The Friends of Memorial Hall Library have launched their most extensive fall membership drive in recent years. Last week, letters, newsletters and museum pass brochures were sent to all present members, as well as the entire Phillips Academy faculty. On Friday and Saturday, board members and the Friends will recruit new members in front of the library and Barcelo's and DeMoulas Markets. Shown stuffing envelopes for the drive are, from left, Paula Trespas, co-chairman of the members; Anne Wiehe, co-chairman; Carolyn Reynolds, president, and Carol Prentiss, mailing chairman.

To Discuss Domestic Violence

A program on domestic violence will be sponsored Wednesday, Nov. 12, at 7:30 p.m. by the Greater Lawrence Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW) at the Lawrence Y.W.C.A.

The program, open to the public without charge, will be presented by members of the Women's Resource Center, which assists battered women, maintains a hotline and provides emergency shelter care for those in need. A film entitled "We Will Not Be Beaten" will be shown.

The local NOW chapter is currently engaged in a membership drive. Those interested may attend the Nov. 12 meeting or call Frances Donovan, Surry Drive, North Andover. An orientation session and pot-luck dinner for both new and present members is scheduled for Friday, Dec. 5.

The monthly chapter meeting is scheduled for Wednesday, Nov. 19, in the home of Marcia Brockelman, 630 Chicker- ing Road, North Andover.

Thanks!

To the Editor of the TOWNSMAN:

The Department of Community Services would like to thank the many volunteers who helped make this year's Haunted House a successful event. A special thanks to the art students at the East Jr. High who under the direction of art teachers Carol Dufresne and Pat Kasper helped to create the proper atmosphere with ghoulish decorations for the House. The following students participated in decorating as well as spooking and serving as guides: Kate Appleton, Sherry Delibac, Lisa Doran, Kelly Edwards, Bill Evans, Stacey Flanagan, Jeff Friedland, Chris Harvey, Anne Hewitt, Samatha Hilliard, Meagan Hughes, Peter Larsen, Jenni Lewis, Kate Lionette, Noreen McGrath, Garth McMurray, Kim Murphy, Lisa Penoz, Ricky Starkweather, Anne Wahr, and Martha Yunggebauer.

For Those Of Us Who Are Older

By Janet D. Lake

The Haven — Andover's senior drop-in center — will be closed all day Nov. 11, in celebration of Veterans Day. There will be no hot lunch program, but WEEBUS service will be available all day.

The regular Tuesday Mini-Clinic that would normally be held Tuesday, the 11th, will be held on Monday, the 10th, at Chestnut Court. Appointments may be made through the Health Department. The Wednesday afternoon counselling and blood pressure checks will be held on Thursdays during November to enable the public health nurse to participate in a training session on hypertension. As usual, no appointment is necessary.

Thursday, Nov. 13, you can travel to London and Wales by being at The Haven at 2 o'clock, to get in on their latest Travelog program. Elaine Stritch will be your guide through lively London sites and the fascinating Welsh countryside.

The Monday (Nov. 10) movie will be Zebra In The Kitchen starring Jay North of "Dennis the Menace" fame. Although there are human stars in this movie, the animals really steal the show. It starts at 2 p.m. and of course, is free.

Saturday, Nov. 8 is the date for the Annual Christmas Bazaar at The Haven, sponsored by the Council on Aging. There are large numbers of beautiful, hand-made items just waiting to get on your gift-giving list, plus baked goods and other interesting items. Open all day, starting at 10 o'clock, at 11 Essex Street — the Olde Theater Building behind the Library. Be there!

Andover's own Helen Robinson was the recipient of this year's Greater Lawrence Association of Councils on Aging recognition award. We know her best for her tireless efforts in bringing joy through music to so many. The director of the Haven Singers for the past several years, she and the singers visit local nursing homes and senior centers to entertain with song. We extend our hearty congratulations to Helen.

Call The Haven to let them know you plan to attend their Pot Luck Lunch Nov. 20 at noon. They'll want some idea of what you plan to bring so that they can coordinate the menu and they'll also make suggestions if you can't think of anything. Come and have a good time. Andover has some of the world's best cooks and they're at The Haven!

Guthrie Assigned

Airman Scott S. Guthrie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph A. Guthrie of 212 Middlesex St., North Andover, has been assigned to Sheppard Air force Base, Texas, after completing Air Force basic training.

During the six weeks at Lackland Air Force Base, Texas, the airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and customs and received special training in human relations.

The airman will now receive specialized instruction in the aircraft maintenance field.

Ticket Booth

The Bostix Ticket Booth at the Faneuil Hall Marketplace offers tickets and information on more than 100 theaters, music and dance performances, historical sites and tourists attractions. (Some tickets are half price on the day of performance.) Hours: Tuesday through Saturdays, 11 a.m. to 7 p.m.; Sunday, noon to 6.

posted, only a handful of people gathered around the bulletin board. Most were Shannon campaign workers, but two or three were awaiting Andover's verdict on 2½.

The small, fairly quiet group expressed disappointment as the early returns looked good for Proposition 2½: "If this is the Andover vote, imagine what it's going to be statewide," observed one Ballardvale resident. "It's going to be crazy."

The sense of pessimism grew stronger as the returns trickled in, precinct by precinct. "Now we'll see where the cuts will be — you'll pay, people, you'll pay," predicted one observer.

The townspeople also seemed surprised by Reagan's overwhelming success in Andover, calling it "staggering" and "absolutely amazing."

"This wave of conservatism is disgusting," said one Shannon worker, shaking his head as he recorded the precinct returns. "They're mad, that's all — I'm just glad they're not mad at Jimmy Shannon."

Another bystander quipped, "I guess Amy Carter's stand on nuclear proliferation didn't go over too well," a reference to one of the president's most noted remarks during last week's debate.

Later, a few more Shannon supporters gathered to check the final results. But as the final results were posted, those waiting took one last look and left with little comment. By 10 p.m., the town hall lobby was empty.

years from now," Forbes added. "That's the difficult part — I don't know how anybody can do that."

Selectman Susan Poore, who last week along with Edward Harris voted against hiring a consultant, maintained that the move is unnecessary. "The question of Rollins's economic viability was raised by Continental, and not by anybody on the board," she said.

"At last week's hearing, we did not hear anything that the advisory committee hadn't already heard," Poore added, "and the committee chairman (attorney Reginald Marden) told us he did not think a consultant was necessary."

Advisory committee member John Sweeney this week told the selectmen, "The next time I'm asked to be on a committee, I wish at the time you would tell me that you would bring in someone to question our findings after two years."

Committee member James Caldwell acknowledged that the selectmen "have to make the decision. But," he added, "we strongly feel that we brought the best to you."

New Book Captures The Andovers

THE TOWNSMAN, NOVEMBER 6, 1980

Katharine Knowles, who has wielded her camera elsewhere about New England, has returned "home" for her latest book of photographs.

A native of North Andover, Miss Knowles has teamed up with Writer Thea Wheelwright for a paperback book just published: "The Andovers: Portrait of Two New England Towns."

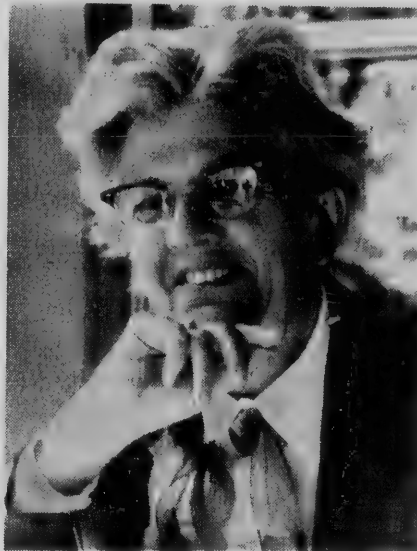

She will be featured at an autograph party Saturday at the Andover Book Store, 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

The photographs in the 96-page book are separated into North Andover and Andover sections, with text explaining that the two towns were once one.

They cover the old and the new, from North Andover's Parson Barnard House built in 1667, to sheepshearing at the 1960 Merrimack Valley Textile Museum and the Millpond Condominiums.

There are the old familiar landmarks, such as the Hay Scales Exchange, and some not so familiar shots, such as a cloudy-day shot of Brooks School from a hilltop off Great Pond Road, and a reflective view of the Lawrence mills from the foot of Sutton and Main, before I-495.

From springtime on Phillips Street to Bulfinch Hall in winter, from the Rose Cottage to Holt Hill, to the Marland Mills, the Benjamin Abbot Homestead and Bancroft School, the Andover selections also span the course of history and the miles.

Miss Knowles and Mrs. Wheelwright have teamed up on other titles as well, the most popular being "Along the Coast of Maine." Miss Knowles also did "Boston:

Portrait of a City," for which the late Walter Muir Whitehill did the text, and Mrs. Wheelwright also authored the book, "Thoreau's Cape Cod."

This original paperback, a trim 7½ inches by nine inches, is dedicated "To Walter Muir Whitehill, in appreciation."

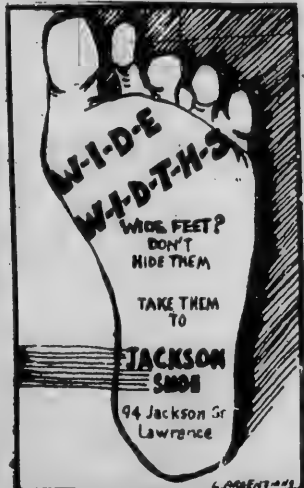

The book is available locally at the Andover Bookstore, or by mail, at $9.95 each, from TBW Books, Box 58, Day's Ferry Road, Woolwich ME 04579.

Nursery Opens At Temple

The Nursery School at Temple Emanuel in Andover has begun its charter year. It is a non-sectarian pre-school for all children ages two years nine months through four years 11 months, with an emphasis on group socialization, free play and creative learning experiences to prepare students to enter kindergarten.

Under the directorship of Mrs. Joyce Witover, the school has enrolled 19 children. They are: Christopher Blongiewicz, Leah Bonner, Eric Danis, John Michael Desmarais, Jared Firestone, Tamara Fluhr, Ian Goldstein, Corey Goodman, Michael Leone, David Lipman, Marc Matton, Beth Murch, Danielle O'Connell, Jeffrey Pothier, Amy Scarpaci, Howard Shinker, Seth Starr, Erica Theberge and Benjamin Tzeng. Mrs. Joyce Witover and Mrs. Judy

Rogers share teaching responsibilities every Monday, Wednesday and Friday mornings. In addition to a variety of indoor activities and outdoor play daily, the children have taken advantage of the fall weather to take many field trips. Among them have been trips to DeMoulas Market to buy fruit, to Smolak Farms in North Andover to pick apples, the fire station in Andover and to Bruin Hill Farm in North Andover for a hay ride. There are limited openings this year and early enrollment is being accepted for next year (1981-1982 school year). For further information, contact Mrs. Joyce Witover or the Temple office.

Missioner To Visit South Church

On Sunday, Nov. 9, Sr. Edesio Sanchez will be visiting South Church in Andover and will address the Sunday morning adult education class at 9:15 a.m., will preach during the Sunday Worship service at 10:30 a.m. and will be the speaker at the afternoon session of the combined meeting of Andover Association, Essex North Association and Essex South Association of the Northeast Area of the Massachusetts Conference, United Church of Christ.

Through a project begun in 1978 by the Massachusetts Conference Council for Mission Outreach and Social Responsibility, in conjunction with the United Church Board for World Ministries, Sr. Sanchez and his wife have arrived in Massachusetts and through their six month stay here will work among the churches and areas of the Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ, bringing a personal perspective in their particular areas of interest, including theological education.

Sr. Sanchez is from Mexico and holds a master's degree in theology from the Seminario Biblico Lationamericano in Costa Rica and is currently studying for a master's degree in Latin American studies. An ordained minister, he is currently full-time professor in the Presbyterian Seminary of Mexico City.

To Lecture At Center

The well-known author and lecturer, April Oursler Armstrong, daughter of Fulton Oursler, author of "The Greatest Story Ever Told," will deliver two lectures at the Christian Formation Center, River Road, Andover, on Monday, Nov. 10, and Tuesday, Nov. 11. Both lectures will begin at 7:30 p.m.

The first lecture on Monday, Nov. 10, is entitled "The Credo of the People of God;" the second, on Tuesday, Nov. 11, "Spirituality Is Normal."

A mother of seven, ages 21 through 31, Mrs. Armstrong finds time to work with aphasics, their families and nurses and therapists.

Museum Tied To The Sea

The only museum in the country founded by sea captains, the Peabody House of Salem combines three fascinating museums in one. Maritime History includes marine paintings, ship models, fishing and whaling memorabilia, nautical tools and instruments of the 18th and 19th centuries. Ethnology includes artifacts and tools principally from the South Pacific, the Orient and Native American cultures as well as decorative arts from the American China Trade. Natural History includes the birds, mammals, fish, reptiles, geology and seashore life of Essex County.

Sacred Music Concert

On Sunday, Nov. 9, at 3 p.m. in the Cochran Chapel, the music department of Phillips Academy will present a concert of sacred music. Performing will be the academy's three major choral organizations: the Concert Choir, the Cantata Choir and the Fidelio Society.

The Cantata Choir, one of the academy's touring organizations, will present Bach Cantata BWV 29, "Wir Danken dir Gott" (We Thank Thee God).

The Fidelio Society will perform works by two 16th Century English composers: "O, Lord, Increase My Faith," by Orlando Gibbons, and the "Sanctus and Benedictus" from the Mass in Five Parts, by William Byrd.

The program will be concluded by a performance of the Mozart Mass in C Minor. The Academy Chorus, under its new director, Mimi Bravar, will perform excerpts from this great work. Joining the chorus will be Beda Polanco, soprano. Ms. Polanco is a graduate of the Conservatory of Puerto Rico and received her masters degree in music from Boston Conservatory.

There is no charge for admission and the public is invited to attend.

Philosophers, psychologists and sociologists say that one of the more serious diseases afflicting Twentieth Century man is "the habit syndrome," according to Father Almagno. It means, he explains, that as man goes through life, he gets used to life and often becomes bored with it. So, especially, with religious acts. The Sacraments themselves become for many a boring repetition, because of the habit syndrome. Hence the need, says Father Almagno, for more adult information concerning the Sacraments.

Born in 1939, the Rev. Romano Stephen Almagno entered the Franciscan Order in 1956, was ordained in 1965, is listed in the 1980-91 American Catholic Who's Who and the International Who's Who of Intellectuals (of Cambridge, England), as well as in Men of Achievement. He was a contributing author for the best-selling Catholic catechism for adults, "The Teaching of Christ."

A member of the board of directors of the American Teilhard Association, Father Romano spent seven years in Rome as a member of the Theology section of the Collegio S. Bonventura, worked in the Vatican library, and was recently named literary editor for the publishing of the late John Cardinal Wright's papers. He has lectured and preached extensively in the U.S. and abroad and for the past nine

Christmas School At Faith

For the 15th consecutive year, a Christmas school will be held for four and five year olds at Faith Lutheran Church, 360 South Main St., Andover. Classes will be held from Monday, Dec. 1 through Friday, Dec. 5, from 9:30 to 11:15 a.m.

The purpose of the Christmas school is to share with the young children an understanding of the significance of the Christmas event. The school is open to all children in the area - although, due to space limitations, only the first 50 children will be accepted. There is no charge - a free will offering will be received each day.

Volunteers from churches throughout the area will make up the staff of the Christmas school. This year's co-chairwomen are Mrs. Terry Shettle and Mrs. Gerard Koerckel.

Registration may be made by phoning Mrs. Terry Shettle, 101 Central St., Andover. Registration is open now through Nov. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. William E. VerPlanck
VerPlanck-Young

Kathleen A. Young, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Young of Lynn, became the bride Oct. 10 of William E. VerPlanck of Andover. The groom is the son of Mrs. Lawrence C. VerPlanck and the late Mr. VerPlanck.

The 6 o'clock service at Trinity Methodist Church in Lynn was followed by a reception at the Chateau deVille in Saugus, and the couple took a wedding trip to Paradise Island in the Bahamas.

The new Mrs. VerPlanck graduated from Lynn Classical High School, and is employed by the Hartford Insurance Co. in Boston. Her husband, a graduate of Tilton School in Tilton, N.H., and Cornell University, Ithaca, N.Y., is with Hartford Insurance in Manchester, N.H.

They are making their home in Londonderry, N.H.

Mrs. Walter J. Shea

Shea-McCabe

Mary Frances McCabe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis H. McCabe of Lawrence, recently became the bride of Walter Joseph Shea in the Collegiate Church of Christ the Teacher at Merrimack College, North Andover. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter J. Shea of Quincy.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, and her sole attendant was her mother, as matron of honor. Richard Elliot Powers of Boston served as best man, and the ushers were Edward Paul McCabe of Hull, brother of the bride, Hugh Francis Powers of Quincy and William E. Fallon of Revere.

The main celebrant at the Nuptial Mass was the Rev. Harry J. Erdlen, OSA, of Villanova, Pa. Concelebrants were the Rev. Paul Kamide, OSA, pastor of St. Augustine's Church in Lawrence, the Rev. Karl Dowd of N.H., the Rev. Thomas Conway of St. Patrick's Church in Lawrence, the Rev. William Murray, OSA, of Merrimack College, the Rev. Francis P. McCartinomi and the Rev. John J. Donnelly, OMI, both of Tewksbury. Father Donnelly had presided at the marriage of the bride's parents 33 years ago.

Music prior to the Mass and during the ceremony was offered by the Immaculate Conception Church Choir of Lowell, under the direction of Mrs. Joseph P. Donahue, Jr. Mrs. Donahue was the recent recipient of the Benemerenti Medal, a papal award given to musicians who have a world-wide reputation for excellence in secular, as well as liturgical music.

Following a reception at the Lanam Club in Andover, the couple left on a wedding trip to Austria, Switzerland and France.

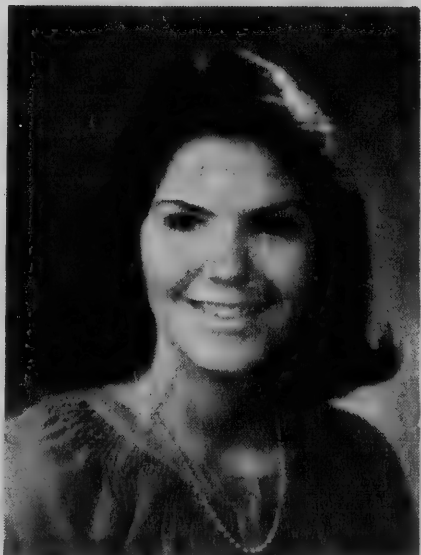

The bride, who is an assistant clerk-magistrate at Lawrence District Court, is a graduate of Abbot Academy, Boston College and Boston College Law School. She spent her junior year at the University of Edinburgh, Scotland, and also attended the University of Dublin in Ireland. Her husband, who is an assistant district attorney in Suffolk County, was graduated from Boston College and Boston College Law School.

Carolyn O'Hara Is Engaged

Dr. and Mrs. Richard S. O'Hara, 10 Bancroft Road, have announced the engagement of their daughter, Carolyn Winn, to Michael Timothy Shannon of Quincy. He is the son of Dr. and Mrs. Paul V. Shannon of Worcester.

The prospective bride, a graduate of Andover High School and the College of the Holy Cross in Worcester, also attended Albert-Ludwigs University in Freiburg, West Germany, and the Columbia University School of International Affairs.

Her fiancé, a graduate of Worcester Academy and the College of the Holy Cross, studied biology at the Boston University Graduate School and is currently a first year student at Tufts University School of Dental Medicine. They plan to be married June 27, 1981.

Spade, Trowel Club Meets

The regular monthly meeting of the Spade and Trowel Garden Club will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 11, at the residence of Mrs. Lucy Keegan, 27 Lincoln St., Andover. Following the business meeting, there will be a holiday workshop. Mrs. Keegan is setting up several projects for the members to create.

Co-hostesses for the evening are Mrs. Lillian Sherman and Mrs. Mary Laratonda.

The flower arranger is Mrs. Lorraine Maxwell.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Socha

Socha-Litch

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Peter Socha are at home in Billerica, following their wedding Oct. 4 at Christ the Teacher Chapel at Merrimack College, North Andover.

The bride is the former Becky Jeanne Litch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Litch, Commack, N.Y. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Wladyslaw Socha, 5 Suncrest Road, Andover.

The Rev. Edward C. Doherty, O.S.A. of Miami, the bride's uncle, officiated at the 11 a.m. ceremony. The chapel was decorated with white carnations, gladioli, and spider mums.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a Victorian gown of knitted crepe, with high, lace-trimmed neck, bishop sleeves, and v-shaped, lace-trimmed bodice. The hem of the accorian-pleated skirt was also trimmed with lace.

The bride made her derby-styled hat, and carried a bouquet of white roses, fugi mums and ivy.

Kathleen Litch of Lancaster, Pa., attended as maid of honor, wearing a handmade aqua gown, and carrying two, long-stemmed pink roses.

Wearing matching gowns in deep oriental green and also carrying pink roses, were the bridesmaid, Julie Litch of Commack, N.Y., Helen Stohlman of Watertown, and Tonia Socha of Andover.

Andrew Socha of Andover was best man, and ushers included Robert Litch of Commack, N.Y., Martin Socha of Andover and Kevin Sweeney of North Andover.

A reception followed the wedding at the Andover Inn and the couple took a wedding trip to Bermuda.

The new Mrs. Socha, a graduate of Merrimack College, is a medical technologist at St. John's Hospital in Lowell. Her husband, also a Merrimack graduate, is an electrical engineer with Avco Systems Division in Wilmington.

Girl Scout Leaders Invested

The highlight of the monthly meeting of the Shawsheen Valley Girl Scout Neighborhood was the investiture of new leaders, Oct. 27, at South Church in Andover.

In a candlelight ceremony, neighborhood administrator Joyce Robinson and her team "pinned" the following new Andover leaders: Joyce Galvin, Eleesa Constantineau, Karen Golec, Jane Griswald, Colleen Georgian, Lynn Nakasone. After extensive training courses in basic Girl Scouting, the out-of-doors, and first aid, these leaders will guide girls to learn values and skills while they experience the fun and excitement of being a Girl Scout.

Ruth Godin, vice president of the Spar and Spindle Council, conducted the election of the following neighborhood delegates to the council: Nina Anthony, Cathy Baun, Susan DeMoulas, Marilyn Nolan, Betsy Reddish, Marion Stanwood, Joyce Robinson, Lucy Roy, Sharon Wright and Joyce Regan.

Cuzco, Peru, is the oldest continually inhabited city in the Americas.

Marion Stanwood announced that a successful uniform sale had resulted in the purchase of "Safety Wise" and Leader's Guides for troops.

Mary Luedeka, facilities administrator, is arranging camp tours to the nine council camps on Dec. 8 and 10 from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m. Interested adults should bring nosebag lunches and phone the office for carpooling arrangements.

The next neighborhood meeting will be held Nov. 17 at 7:30 p.m. at South Church. Leaders at each level will meet with their consultants in addition to resource leaders provided by council. Everyone is asked to bring holiday craft samples to share.

Programs On Health Of Women

A series of lectures, workshops and demonstrations on women's health issues will be held at Northern Essex Community College, Haverhill, beginning Friday, Nov. 7. All programs will be held in Lecture Hall A in the classroom building between noon and 1 p.m. The program is being sponsored jointly by the Social Committee and Health Services Office at Northern Essex.

"Self-defense for Women and Rape Prevention" will be the topic Nov. 7. Larry Giordano, a karate instructor and police officer, and Gerry Thibeault, also a police officer, both from Methuen, will present the program which is geared to making women aware of potential dangers in daily situations. Methods of self-defense and safety tips will also be highlighted.

On Monday, Nov. 10, "Women's Role in Family Planning" will be presented by Nancy Crowder, area coordinator of Family Planning, Inc. of Haverhill. Crowder will explain methods of birth control and discuss family planning services available in the local area.

"Cancer Awareness: What Every Woman Should Know" will be the topic of discussion on Monday, Nov. 17. This program will include a lecture, demonstration and film on breast self-examination, as well as a discussion of the need for an annual check-up. Patricia Augeri, R.N., N.E.C.C. Health Coordinator, will lead the discussion.

On Monday, Nov. 24, counselors from the Bill Baird Center will present a program on "Women and Choice." This will be an informal presentation and audience participation will be invited. Among the subjects to be covered are pregnancy counseling, abortion, sexuality and venereal disease.

The series will conclude on Nov. 19, with Betsy Henry, exercise specialist, who will present a program entitled, "Fitness for Women - Get Moving, Staying Moving." A demonstration will be included and there will be audience participation.

St. Mark's Gospel At Spingold

"St. Mark's Gospel," by Alec McCowen, the telling of the story of Jesus, will be presented at Brandeis University's Spingold Theater Friday and Saturday, Nov. 14 and 15, at 8 p.m.

The production features solo performer Michael Tolaydo, who spent three months committing the lines to memory. Except for a brief introduction, the only words spoken in this presentation are taken verbatim from the King James version of the Bible.

Credit for the idea of using a book of the Bible as a complete script for a theatrical performance belongs to British actor Alec McCowen, who introduced his version of "St. Mark's Gospel" in New York last year. He was nominated for a Tony Award.

McCowen personally selected Tolaydo to carry on in his stead after auditioning a large number of actors. McCowen also directed Tolaydo in preparation for the road tour.

Despite its "fantastic challenge," Tolaydo enjoys the work. "This is a great joy," he said. "It's more than a religious experience. St. Mark's Gospel is an exciting story. It's one of the best scripts imaginable. Extraordinary beautiful."

While Mark was not quite a cradle Christian, he grew up in the heart of the early Christian fellowship. His mother was a wealthy Jerusalem woman who opened her house to the first disciples, including Peter.

Mark's gospel, the earliest of the four books on Christ's life, is said to be based largely on conversations the writer had with Peter.

Tolaydo thinks of Mark as "a historian, a recorder of events. The result is very interesting. It's much more 'human' than the other gospels."

Tolaydo's acting credits include a variety of roles with regional theater companies in addition to several television appearances.

On Scene Painting

An illustrated lecture, "Molly Luce and Painters of the American Scene," on 20th century regionalist painting, will be presented by Roger Howlett of the Childs Gallery, Boston, at The Museum of Our National Heritage, Sunday, Nov. 9, at 3 o'clock. Admission is free.

Howlett will define American Scene painting from 1920 to 1950, and discuss the work of Molly Luce and her place among other well known American Scene painters such as John Steuart Curry, Thomas Hart Benton, Grant Wood and Paul Sample.

Veterans Tribute Tuesday

Rev. Jack L. Daniel, Jr., pastor of Free Christian Church, will be the speaker at the annual Veterans Day Memorial Services Tuesday, Nov. 11 at the American Legion monument in Spring Grove Cemetery at 11 a.m.

Officers and members of American Legion Post 8 and Veterans of Foreign Wars Post 2128, will participate in the services.

The Andover Patriotic Holiday committee has extended an invitation to all townspeople to join in the tribute to deceased veterans of all wars.

Participants will meet at Veterans

Headquarters Hall, in the theater building on Essex Street at 10 a.m. to proceed to the ceremonies.

Opening remarks will be given by Clarence Johnson of American Legion Post 8, with Legion Chaplain John Murphy giving the opening prayer.

Following the eulogy by the Rev. Mr. Daniel, wreaths will be placed by Commander Patrick Flynn of VFW 2128 and Commander Johnson.

Benediction will be Chaplain Murphy to be followed by a volley by the Legion and VFW firing squads and the sounding of Taps by Mark Haddard of Andover High School.

'Vale Will Get 'Library'

The opening of a Ballardvale reading room, to replace the branch library located in the condemned Ballardvale Community Center, appears to be just around the corner.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark Monday night told the selectmen that lease arrangements have been finalized with John McCoy of Evergreen Drive to rent space in his Corner Cupboard building, at $300 a month.

Library personnel have sorted books for the new reading room, the manager said, and equipment needed for the space has been ordered.

But before the reading room can be opened, minor renovations must be completed, the manager said, including electrical work and the addition of a second exit. That work could be accomplished in less than one week, Clark indicated.

The town is now accepting bids for the work, seeking a contractor who can begin immediately, Clark said. Six bids have already been rejected because the contractors could not begin the work soon enough, he said.

Pattullo Assistant Inspector

David W. Pattullo, 26, 58 High St., has been appointed assistant inspector of buildings, with his appointment unanimously confirmed by the selectmen Monday night.

Pattullo, who has served as a local building inspector for the past year and a half, will work under San DeSalvo, who was recently promoted to the position of Inspector of Buildings.

The new assistant inspector began training as a building inspector with the town three years ago. A graduate of Andover High School, Pattullo has attended Lowell Technical Institute and Southeastern Massachusetts University.

Town Manager Jared S.A. Clark told the selectmen Pattullo was recommended to him by both DeSalvo and Director of Community Development and Planning Rhys Kear.

Pattullo is the son of Andover Police Lt. and Mrs. Hector Pattullo.

Chapin To Head Academy Trustees

Melville Chapin

Melville Chapin, an Andover native and senior partner in the law firm of Warner and Stackpole, Boston, will take over presidency of the Phillips Academy Board of Trustees in January, 1981.

Charter trustees of the 203-year-old coeducational boarding school elected Chapin president-elect last Friday, to succeed Trustee President Donald H.

The Veep's An Alumnus

Phillips Academy, Andover, now lists a U.S. Vice President-elect among its list of notable alumni.

George W. Bush, 1942 graduate of the academy, had served as a trustee at the school from 1967 until he announced for national office over a year ago.

PA Headmaster Theodore R. Sizer said Wednesday morning "we're very proud. I think it's wonderful. George Bush is an extraordinary man of great integrity and imagination. I think his election is a very reassuring sign," as he joins President-elect Ronald Reagan as the nation's leaders beginning in January.

Bush was a candidate for the Republican nomination for president, losing to Reagan, who selected him as his running mate at the GOP convention in Detroit last summer.

The vice president-elect has visited the area on several occasions, both as a trustee of the academy, as a speaker at the school, and he addressed the Greater Lawrence Chamber of Commerce in 1971, then serving as U.S. Ambassador to the United Nations.

Born in Milton, the family later moved to Connecticut where his father served as U.S. Senator. Following graduation from Yale and service in World War II, Bush became involved in the oil business in Texas before entering a political career which started with his election to Congress in 1966.

Donald H. McLean, Jr.

McLean, Jr., at their next meeting, in January.

Chapin, a trustee since 1973, currently leads the Trustees Search Committee, which will choose a successor to Headmaster Theodore R. Sizer, who will leave the academy next June to conduct a study of U.S. high schools. Chapin, a former trustee of Abbot Academy, was an important voice in the merger of Phillips and Abbot Academies in 1973, and was chairman of Andover's successful 200th anniversary fund campaign, which raised a record $52 million and helped raise the school's scholarship budget to a current $1,792,000.

Trustee President McLean, Andover resident and retired head of the Lahey

Clinic Foundation of Boston, will step through 12 of the most eventful years in the academy's history. He has been trustee president since 1968, through the turbulent era of the late '60s and early '70s, the advent of coeducation and merger with Abbot in 1973, the academy's Bicentennial Celebration in 1978 and successful fund campaign that topped its goal on Dec. 31, 1979.

Cohen Has Response For Prop 2½

By Robert E. Finneran
Editor

Carrier Retires After 38 Years

Andover mail carrier Pete O'Hagan of Baker Lane retired last week after 38 years of service with the U. S. Postal Service. O'Hagan's fellow postal workers gifted him with a watch upon his retirement, presented by Postmaster Ed Morrissey (left).

Andover's State Rep. Gerald M. Cohen expressed disappointment at the large plurality accorded Proposition 2½ on Tuesday's ballot, but looked upon the result as a boost for "the Cohen amendment."

Cohen, chairman of the committee on taxation, has toured the state the past few months, participating in debates and, in general, expressing opposition to Question 2 on Tuesday's ballot.

His disappointment in the Tuesday result which saw Prop. 2½ favored by more than two-to-one, was more in the size of the plurality, since he felt the proposal stood a good chance of success before the polls opened.

He will meet with legislative leadership and others today to comment on the mandate issued Tuesday as well as suggest ways to meet the demands set by the people of the Commonwealth.

"The representative viewed the vote with the comment, 'the public has sent the message that this state's lopsided reliance on the property tax is at an end, and we have a perspective on the legislative action this message requires.'"

Paramount in Cohen's thoughts is his proposal to provide tax relief through the Cohen amendment which places a ceiling on the total burden imposed by state and local taxes combined.

Since the legislature can amend Prop. 2½, Cohen is suggesting that ceiling on the total burden be realized through adopting a 15.5 average individual cost to persons for state and local government costs.

This is achieved by taking all the funds provided government by individuals, including taxes, user fees, licenses, etc., for which Massachusetts residents now pay 16 percent of their personal income.

The national average is 15.5 percent and the legislature should aim for that level in the next year, then when it is in place, build a model by which the state and local governments can operate, Cohen feels.

He believes that considerations on new revenue packages at the state level will come up in late spring or summer of next year and will become major battles.

Recognizing that Prop. 2½ results in $700 million in lost revenues, Cohen feels it is reasonable to assume that the state can raise half of that amount through the

Suggestions And Thoughts

While recuperating and waiting for the election results to settle down, here are a few suggestions and thoughts beginning with the Andover —

Polling Place

— which was thoroughly jammed on election day, particularly during the peak periods of early morning and the late rush hour, from 4 p.m. on.

Tuesday's exercise in the Democratic process here, should give reason enough to study the advisability of returning to the old individual precinct polling locations.

There are those who will claim that public reaction to the single polling place — the high school gym — still is workable through an educational process.

That people panicked viewing the long traffic lines. That parking wasn't available.

But, the finest educational programming in the world is apparently not going to make the situation any better.

The system has been tried for a couple of years. We have gone through local, state and national elections, and found the system wanting.

The heavy turnout on Tuesday was indication enough that while it may be economical to have only the one polling location, the old system seems more suitable.

There are less people to accommodate in the individual precincts. It is easier for those in the area to go to a more accessible neighborhood polling place. The tendency toward confusion resulting from crowded conditions is lessened.

It's possible that the move back to the eight single polling locations may result in a little expenditure, but in terms of saving aggravation, being more convenient and making the Democratic process less cumbersome, it would be worthwhile to take a long, hard look at the situation before the next election rolls around.

Free Consult

While the above suggestion indicates the necessity to spend some money, let's present a money-saving tip, whether it be public or private funds needed for that consultant service to come up with a Cable TV service for the town.

Selectmen this week have accepted the fact that both Rollins Cablevision and Continental Cablevision will accept costs of retaining a consultant to look at the proposals. This follows an over year-long study by a specially appointed town committee which recommended that Rollins be given the franchise.

Admittedly this is a layman's perspective of the situation, but two items stand out. Rollins did $400 million in business last year. A report in a Boston newspaper this week listed Rollins as among four of the top cablevision firms in the country as being an applicant for the Boston franchise.

Based on those two items, Rollins could be adjudged to be financially sound and worthy of local licensing consideration.

The consultant fee for the above advisory is provided gratis.

Still Hope

While we accept the fact that the new Informational Material Center (library) at West Junior High is to be a pagoda, we see a ray of hope.

At the recent school building committee meeting, it was revealed that the construction of the IMC will have to be done "blind" due to logistics.

The IMC will be installed in what is now a courtyard, thus a crane will be lifting the various parts over the roof into the construction area.

Now, if we can keep the plans out by the crane, and let the workmen assemble the parts in the courtyard, maybe, just maybe, we won't have the pagoda clashing with that delicate mosaic which adorns the auditorium section of the junior high.

Between pagodas, mosaics and Bancroft, Andover is destined to be the epitome of architectural potpourri. Suppose for the kind of money we're spending, we've earned it.

Down The Years With The Townsman

75 Years Ago — November 1905

The Newburyport High School eleven, which was scheduled to play the Andover Athletic Association team on the playstead Saturday afternoon, failed to appear. Next Saturday the Nashua Y.M.C.A. eleven will be the attraction and a good game is expected.

H. Bradford Lewis was awarded the club championship by the Merrimack Valley Country Club of Lawrence last Saturday. He was also a prize winner for the handicap medal play for winners of the monthly contests.

Bishop Brady of Boston made an official visit to St. Augustine's Church last Sunday morning, when a class of 195 children were confirmed. Of that number, 125 were from the home parish and the remainder were from Ballardvale and Wilmington.

The Stowe School eleven and an eleven representing the Methuen Grammar School played on the old Phillips Academy campus Saturday afternoon. The game was close and interesting, neither side being able to score.

Fire broke out again in the Phillips Academy coal pocket Saturday evening. Part of the fire department was called and drenched the coal with water. Work of removing the coal was started on Monday morning and most of it has been taken out. The fire has caused quite a loss to the academy.

50 Years Ago — November 1930

A substantial Republican majority all through the state ticket distinguished Andover in the state election which took place on Tuesday and resulted in the election of the Democratic candidate for governor by a plurality of 74,942. Andover's decision on the Baby Volstead Act, however, conformed with the majority of voters throughout the state, the local vote being 1,746 in favor of its repeal compared with 1,479 against it.

The schools are closed today in order that the teachers may attend their annual convention which is being held in Boston.

Another "Miss Charming" will be chosen at the weekly dance to be held in the Knights of Columbus hall this evening under the auspices of St. Augustine's dramatic club. Dancing will begin at 9 o'clock with music by Billy Casey's Merry-makers.

Heifitz will give a concert in George Washington Hall on Friday evening, Nov. 14, at 8:15. Critics say Heifitz is greater, if possible, now than ever. His extraordinary technique, flawless intonation, impeccable musicianship and golden tone are crowned with a new warmth and humanity.

More than 100 voters attended the Republican rally held in the town hall on Thursday evening of last week. Dr. Alfred E. Stearns presided and music was provided by the Calvary Philharmonic Orchestra.

25 Years Ago — November 1955

Alfred Sartorelli, a Boston attorney and spokesman for the Realty Construction Co., appeared before a planning board meeting to discuss his firm's plans for housing developments off Westwind Road and in the Flying Feather farm area. Many other town officials attended the meeting with considerable interest in the plans for the area which was recently closed to sub-divisions due to utility problems.

Permits for 184 new homes have been issued here in the ten-month period ending Oct. 31. Building inspector Ralph Coleman pointed out this week that 198 new homes were built last year and predicted that the 1954 total will be surpassed in the two months remaining in 1955.

Zebra In The Kitchen

This week's feature film, "Zebra in the Kitchen," will be shown at Memorial Hall Library on Friday, November 7 at 7:30 p.m. This Ivan Tors family film stars Jay North (of Dennis the Menace fame) as an animal-loving lad who causes chaos when he releases all the inhabitants of the city zoo, including his recently captured pet lion. Children 7 years and older are welcome to attend with their family. Open to the public without charge.

Bring Your Library Cards

The Circulation Staff at Memorial Hall Library is reporting an alarming increase in overdue books, which, when traced, the library card holder claims they have never taken. The problem arises from borrowers using friend's and relative's library cards to check out books. When you come to the library, you must present your own card to borrow books. If the card is lost, the staff will gladly replace it with a new one.

Drawing Collaborations On Display

The combined efforts of three women have produced a different art form for this exhibit which will be displayed through the month of November at Memorial Hall Library. Poet E. F. Weisslitz of West Buxford, has had over 150 poems published in most of the major publications in the U. S., including "The New Yorker," "The Yale Review" and "Yankee." Calligrapher Nancy Nortoln of West Buxford, is both teacher and artist. Artist Yvonne Youst of Whately, specializes in antique restorations and miniature paintings of old New England homes.

A Book For Pre-Retirement Planning

Woodall's "1981 Sunbelt Retirement Directory" is a new addition to Memorial Hall Library's reference collection. What you can do in retirement invariably depends on how well you have planned for it. This directory will aid you in analyzing your financial condition, selecting the type of housing, and finding reputable medical aid in a new location. Listings by state, region and facility name of all types of housing geared to retirement living from the Carolinas to Texas are included in this helpful directory.

At Conference

Margaret Gritsavage, a resident of Burton Farms Drive in Andover, will present a session at the 1980 New England Kindergarten Conference to be held Friday, Nov. 21, in Randolph. Ms. Gritsavage's session is entitled: "Invented Spelling: A Broad Perspective."

Deloury Pit Work Is Completed

Contractor John Deloury has completed the excavation and renovation of a gravel pit off Route 125, on the Wilmington line, as authorized by the selectmen two years ago, the town manager told selectmen Monday night.

The pit is now closed and planted with grass on both the Andover and Wilmington side, Town Manager Jared S. A. Clark noted.

Inspector of Buildings Sam DeSalvo has recommended that Deloury's performance bond be released because the contractor has satisfied the requirements stipulated in the selectmen's permit, Clark said.

Englishmen were taxed from 1697 to 1851 for all windows in their houses over the number of six.

WEEKLY SPECIAL

U.S. Would Face Major Snags
In Defending Overseas OilBy Jack Anderson and Joe Spear

WASHINGTON -- Locked in Pentagon vaults is some disturbing news about the 200,000-man Rapid Deployment Force that the United States is depending upon to protect its overseas oil supply.

Top-secret Defense Department documents warn that the rapid deployment force won't be very rapid. According to one report compiled by the Joint Chiefs of Staff:

"The United States has several deficiencies in its present ability to project power. First, adequate sea and air transport is lacking to provide the kind of rapid response likely to be decisive. Second, faced with severe budgetary constraints, many operations and maintenance programs, which support day-to-day combat readiness, have been cut back."

Secret statistics from Pentagon computer readouts detail the dangerous shortage in airlift capacity.

Take, for instance, the 101st Airborne Division -- the famous "Screaming Eagles." These gung-ho paratroopers are stationed at Fort Campbell, Ky., and are supposedly ready to be rushed to Saudi Arabia in case of a flare-up in the Persian Gulf.

There's no doubt that the paratroopers of the 101st could carry out whatever mission they are assigned to -- if they could get there. The trouble is, there's no way that the 101st Airborne can get where it is supposed to be in time to respond to an emergency.

It's a matter of logistics. The 101st Division, with all its heavy equipment, weighs 17,421 tons. It would take at least eight days -- more realistically, 16 days -- to fly the division the 7,800 miles to Saudi Arabia.

And even that deployment would take all the airlift capacity that the Pentagon can scrape together. Yet the 101st is only one part of the Rapid Deployment Force. Two divisions and a brigade are supposed to be able to reach any hot spot in the world in one week.

IMMIGRATION BACKLOG: Officials of the Immigration and Naturalization Service can't seem to stay ahead of all the immigrants who want to come to the United States.

This year, INS bureaucrats were assigned to crisis projects like locating Iranian students in the United States and finding a place for Cuban refugees. So the routine processing of arrival and departure documents for visitors to the United States backed up.

Congress gave the INS an emergency fund of $600,000 this year to eliminate its backlog. The legislators also authorized another $1.25 million to keep the logjam from building up again. But according to INS sources, the backlog is back, and it's worse than ever. Congress will apparently have to shell out some additional money to get INS back on track again.

SOVIET SHORTAGES: For the second year in a row, the Soviet Union has had a disastrous harvest. The Russians' weather problems haven't been as bad as in previous years, yet their grain harvest is reported to be 30 percent below expectations.

This means the Soviet grain reserves are sinking to new lows, and the Kremlin will have to depend more than ever on imports. Usually, there are only five nations in the world the Russians can turn to -- the United States, France, Canada, Argentina and Australia.

The U.S., of course, is still embargoing grain sales to the Soviets because of their Afghanistan invasion. The Argentines, who bailed out the Russians last year, have suffered a poor harvest of their own.

All of this could lead to political problems for the Kremlin. Without grain, Soviet meat production will be dropping. And it was meat shortages, remember, which touched off the labor strikes in Poland this past summer.

FRUITLESS REFORMS: Recent congressional reforms were supposed to increase the clout of freshmen members. But of the 435 public laws enacted by the 96th Congress, only 13 were introduced by any of the 75 House freshmen. Half of those lacked real substance. For example, one freshman proposal adopted by Congress commemorates National Athletic Boosters week. Two other proposals sponsored by a freshman member simply gave names to public buildings. So much for congressional reforms.

POSITIVE RESULT: The Iran-Iraq war has done some good in one respect. It has prodded the Energy Department into stepping up attempts to fill the so-called Strategic Petroleum Reserve. In the past few weeks, the Energy Department has been pumping 65,000 barrels of oil a day into cavernous salt domes. The only problem is, the bureaucrats are not sure whether they can get the oil back out of the ground.

BUYING JAPANESE: President Jimmy Carter has claimed that the federal government is doing all it can to help the beleaguered U.S. auto industry. But just this year, federal officials bought $30 million worth of lightweight trucks -- made in Japan. Government buyers say they purchased 5,900 Japanese pick-ups because American trucks didn't meet federal mileage standards. Next year, the government will pour another $171 million into its vehicle fleet. The question: Will Uncle Sam buy American?

The Department of Community Services held its annual Ten Mile Bike Race this past Saturday and drew the largest field in the event's six year history. Forty-nine cyclists entered the competition and 42 managed to complete the grueling 10.4 mile race route.

Derek Williams of Andover was first to cross the finish line in a time of 31.15. Although this time was just over two minutes slower than the course record, high winds and very cool temperatures made a record setting performance an unlikely possibility. Five other cyclists completed the race within 45 seconds of the first place time. The first woman finisher was Hart Brent-Collins with a time of 34.30. A summary of division winners and their respective times is as follows:

Male Finishers: Derek Williams, 31.15; Robert Marrison, 31.29; Steve Bergeran, 31.31; David Maloof, 31.40.

Female Finishers: Hart Brent-Collins, 34.30; Sue Kachen, 57.37.

40 years and over: Ted Moreland, 36.15; Jerold Bischoff, 40.35; George Kachen, 57.38.

High School: Steve Bergeron, 31.31; Frank Considine, 35.31; Chris Dean, 35.58; Chris Valcourt, 37.24.

14 years and under: Warren Zanes, 32.09; Robert Wilson, 35.27; Mike Landrum, 36.31; John Tremblay and David Doyle (tie), 36.36.

Warriors Shut Out Again

By Rick Harrison

The injury-riddled Andover High football team continued to have problems putting points on the board, stretching their winless streak through four games with a tough 12-0 loss to fired-up Methuen last Saturday at the Rangers' Nicholson Stadium.

The Golden Warriors, who started the season with three straight wins against Wilmington, Austin Prep and Greater-Lawrence Regional, now find themselves at 3-3-1 and struggling to avoid the first losing campaign for an Andover grid team in the last decade.

The AHS trademark over the years has been a diversified and explosive offense, and in the opening three games this Fall that continued as Coach Dick Collins' squad put 73 points on the board.

However, in the last 4½ games the Warriors have been able to score just one touchdown as a combination of fine defensive play by the opposition, torrential rains and injuries have put a clamp on the Andover run-and-shoot.

The Warriors went scoreless in the second half against Greater-Lawrence, dropped a 17-0 decision to Lawrence High, lost to Chelmsford 15-6, tied Billerica 0-0 in the rain, and bowed to Methuen.

Andover entered the Methuen game with running backs Tom Wilkins and Russ Lewis watching from the sidelines in street clothes, and midway through the second quarter No. 1 quarterback Brien Moriarty left the game with an injury.

Junior Carmen Scarpa did a solid job the rest of the way at QB, and sophomore Greg Sacco showed excellent potential and filled in admirably in the backfield, but Andover was unable to sustain a drive until late in the final period.

The Warriors produced only 46 yards on the ground and 73 in the air.

Methuen went almost exclusively with its running game, chewing up 171 yards, but the only pass the Rangers' completed in five attempts went for their insurance touchdown.

Jozokos Scores Early

Andover came out of the chute wheeling and dealing, with Sacco unloading a long lefthanded option bomb on their first play, but the ball just slipped through the outstretched arms of a diving Tim Grams deep in Methuen territory.

A short time later Glenn McIntyre, who averaged 32 yards a punt, toed the first of his eight kicks and Jim Graham returned it 29 yards to midfield.

Graham then hit the AHS line for two yards, and on the next play QB Mike Jozokos snaked through the middle, burst into the open and raced 48 yards for the first Methuen TD.

Jozokos emerged as the top rusher in the game with 88 yards in eight carries.

Methuen got three cracks at the two-point conversion, but eventually came up empty-handed.

On the first try, a pass, Andover was called for offensive interference. Jozosko then slammed over on the second attempt, but that was nullified by an illegal motion penalty. On the third try another pass fell incomplete.

The Rangers threatened again early in the second period, moving to the Andover 36 on short bursts by Jim Gregg, Graham, Sean Bradley and Jozokos before a fourth down pass from Jozokos to Ken Curley went astray.

During that mini-march Warriors' defensive linemen Jim DePiano and Mark Robichaud sacked Jozokos for a seven-yard loss.

Andover, which penetrated Methuen territory only twice in the first half and didn't get beyond the Rangers' 47 yard line the opening two quarters, had Methuen pinned deep (inside its own 10) midway through the second period.

But Jozokos once again came to the rescue, unloading a soaring 52 yard punt from the Rangers' endzone.

Late in the half Scarpa scrambled 14 yards and Wayne Merola added nine more on a pitchout, but time ran out just as it appeared AHS was about to shake its offensive cobwebs.

Insurance Touchdown

Coach Larry Klimas' squad, which was raising its record to 6-1-0 and defeating Andover for the first time in 15 years, added the insurance TD on its first possession of the second half.

The Rangers drove 56 yards in 10 plays following a McIntyre punt.

The key play was a 28 yard run by Jozokos on a fourth-and-3 situation at the Andover 34, and the payoff was a four-yard scoring strike from Jozokos to George St. Hilaire.

As it turned out that was the only completion of the wind-chilled afternoon for the Methuen signal-caller, but it gave MHS a 12-0 edge with 3:21 remaining in the third quarter.

Youth Hoop League Tryouts

The AYBL will conduct its tryouts Saturday, Nov. 8 at the Andover High School gym. These tryouts are for the purpose of team selection only. All registrants are assigned to teams, the league having a no-cut policy.

Those players wishing to play in the league who did not register on Wednesday, must register on Saturday, Nov. 8, and sign up 15 minutes before their tryout schedule time below.

Team tryouts are conducted by age grouping. All registrants except eight year olds and players who were assigned to a team last year in the Intermediate and Senior Divisions and would still be eligible in their respective division must attend their applicable tryout sessions (both tryout sessions). All players must wear sneakers, T-shirt and gym shorts. Improperly attired players will not be allowed to participate.

Following Saturday, Nov. 8 tryouts, which will include Junior, Intermediate and Senior Divisions, the second Junior Division tryout will be held on Monday, Nov. 10, the Intermediate tryout Nov. 11, and Senior tryout Nov. 12. All coaches must attend their divisional tryout sessions.

The tryout sessions are as follows:
Saturday, Nov. 8 (high school gym) Intermediate Division (first tryout) 11 and 12 year olds - 9 - 11 a.m.; Junior Division (first tryout) nine year olds, 1 - 2:30 p.m.,

10 year olds, 2:30 - 4 p.m.; Senior Division (first tryout) 13 year olds, 4 - 5:30 p.m., 14 and 15 year olds, 5:30 - 7 p.m. Everyone must be at their tryout session 15 minutes early.

Monday, Nov. 10 (West Junior High gym) Junior Division (second tryout) nine year olds, 6 - 7:30 p.m., 10 year olds, 7:30 - 9 p.m. Must be there 15 minutes early.

Tuesday, Nov. 11 (West Junior High gym) Intermediate Division (second tryout) 11 and 12 year olds, 6 - 8 p.m. Must be there 15 minutes early.

Wednesday, Nov. 12 (West Junior High gym) Senior Division (second tryout) 13 year olds, 6 - 7:30 p.m., 14 and 15 year olds, 7:30 - 9 p.m. Must be there 15 minutes early.

The AYBL is still seeking a director for its eight year old Instructional PeeWee Division and can use volunteers in other areas. Please contact Frank Monette, if interested.

Ski Club Expands BWL Program

The Executive Board of the Andover Ski Club met recently to discuss the recent changes in their racing program for the 1980-81 ski season.

A new racing program has been formed for children between the ages of 14 and 19. The program is called Junior Team Racing (JTR) and will compliment the present Buddy Werner League, whose racing eligibilities only run through the age of 13.

The JTR teams will be formed at the local ski areas and, at present, Bradford, Merrimack Valley, Neshoba and Waltham are looking for prospective members. The JTR races will be held at different times and locations from the BWL events and will be separately administered. For more detailed information, anyone interested should contact Mike Hughes or Steve Smith.

Dry land practice will be held on Sunday, Nov. 9 and 16, and Dec. 7 and 14 at Andover High School starting at 1 p.m. Dave Simpson, Bob Graff, Ray Orrell and Larry Knight will head up these practice sessions. Any person interested in getting into good condition for the upcoming ski season is encouraged to attend any or all of these practices. Membership in the Andover Ski Club or the BWL racing program is not necessary to participate.

Grace Emmert

Aiding Vermont Soccer

Grace Emmert, a native of Andover, is enjoying a fine season at right wing for the University of Vermont soccer team.

In only her second year of soccer competition, Emmert is one of Vermont's top scorers again this year. The speedy wing has scored two goals and picked up six assists. She scored the only goal in UVM's 1-0 win over Massachusetts, the team they play in the Eastern Championships this week. Her speed is also utilized in track where she holds University records in the 50, 100 and 400 meter hurdles and is on teams that holds the 4x100, 4x200 and 4x400 meter relays. She also captured the New England crown in the 100 meter hurdles two years ago.

Vermont coach John Carter is pleased Emmert tried out for soccer last year. "Although Grace's speed alone could beat most defenders, she has improved her ball control to the point where she is always an offensive threat. She has an excellent ability to turn the ball and change speeds."

Her success leads off the field as well, as she is currently carrying a 3.0 grade point average in Environmental Engineering. She is also a member of UVM's Athletic Council, a committee made up of faculty and staff, coaches, alumni and athletes, who help determine athletic policy. Emmert is one of the four athletes on the Council.

Warriors

Jozokos tried to rush the conversion but was stacked up short.

The rivals then exchanged five punts, with neither club able to register a first down.

Sacco attempted another long option heave to Grams, but again the pair barely missed connections, and midway through the final session the Rangers reached the AHS 35 before a holding penalty and a combination Craig Hyslip-Mike Reilly sack ended the bid.

Andover Threatens

The Golden Warriors controlled the final three minutes of the game, as Scarpa passed them tantalizingly close to the Methuen goalline twice.

Andover marched from its own 32 yard line to the Methuen seven, moving 61 yards as Scarpa hit a sizzling 7-for-10 in the air.

Glenn McIntyre caught two passes for 28 yards. Tim Grams one for 15, Bob Heidt one for 13 and Sacco two for 11 yards. Another razzle-dazzle pass from Wayne Merola to Scarpa lost five yards.

On first down from the seven with 58 seconds left, Scarpa went for McIntyre in the endzone but coach's son Eric Klimas made a fine diving interception after the ball was tipped.

One play later junior Mike White pounced on a Rangers' fumble at the Methuen 20.

Scarpa hit Merola with a short pass, Mike Chiklis was stopped cold on a draw, Scarpa lost several yards on a keeper, and the game ended with St. Hilaire batting down a fourth down pass intended for Merola.

Seminar On Finances

Joseph M. Smith, corporate auditor and personal financial counselor, will give a one-day seminar on basic personal money management Saturday, Nov. 15, starting 8:30 a.m. at the Howard Johnson Motor Lodge, Montvale Avenue and Rt. 93, Woburn.

The course is designed to teach the average person to be a successful money manager. Smith demonstrates practical, easy-to-use techniques, including a simplified bookkeeping system.

The class is produced by the Educational Division of Affiliated Resources in Billerica. Call for more information.

Stats

Both teams finished with seven first downs, and the Golden Warriors held a slim 58-56 edge in scrimmage plays and passing yardage (73-4).

Methuen had the upper hand in rushing yardage (171-46) and total yardage from scrimmage (175-119).

The game was relatively clean with only five penalties called.

Jim DePiano played an outstanding defensive game for Andover, as did Glenn McIntyre.

The Golden Warriors return home this Saturday to host struggling Lowell High (2-5-0) at Lovely Field, the first time the two schools have ever met on the gridiron. Kickoff time is 1:30 p.m.

Golden Booters Vie For State Championship

By She Livermore

Continuing their winning ways, which guaranteed Andover a berth in the State Tournament, the Golden Booters overwhelmed Lawrence High 5-0 on Wednesday and countered the challenge of a much more aggressive Haverhill team in a re-match on Saturday.

The State Championship Tournament gets underway on Monday, November 10th, and prospects look good that the Golden Booters' first contest will be at home. The single elimination set-up of the league requires that you must win in order to advance. Andover will be playing for keeps by attempting to maintain their almost perfect record of 13 wins, 1 tie and 1 loss.

Andover 5, Lawrence 0

Andover left no doubt in Lawrence's mind that they were the first place team. They dominated the entire game and won a 5-0 victory.

The scoring barrage was started by Dave Robinson in the first two minutes of play; this was Dave's first goal of the season.

This was quickly followed by the first of Steve Carbone's two goals.

With a 2-0 lead, Andover kept the ball in the Lawrence end and shot at the Lawrence goalkeeper on numerous occasions.

Adding to the scoreboard for Andover were Paul Thoday and Chris Bates.

Lawrence came to life in the last fifteen minutes of the second half and put extreme pressure on back-up goalkeeper Danny Kimball. Danny was equal to the task, however; he deflected one excellent shot which was aimed at the upper left hand corner of the net and subsequently controlled three corner kicks which were right on the goal. His outstanding effort preserved the shut-out for senior goalkeeper Brian Butler and the team.

Andover's defense played extremely well, keeping the ball in the Lawrence end most of the game.

Andover 2, Haverhill 0

Haverhill gave the Golden Booters a much more difficult time in a re-match, holding Andover scoreless for the first half when they had a relatively strong wind at their back.

Andover finally made the scoreboard on a penalty kick by Dan Donovan eleven minutes into the second half.

This goal broke the ice for a flood of Andover shots and pressure on Haverhill's goalkeeper. Only one additional shot found its way into the net, however, scored by Chris Bates on an excellent set-up by Mike Sherman.

Todd Lockwood played very well at centre defender in the second half. Paul Thoday also did a good job at centre halfback. Dave Sherman as right defender played another excellent game.

The Golden Booters have one final game to complete the league schedule. This is scheduled to be played in Chelmsford at 3:00 p.m. on Wednesday, November 5. Monday, Nov. 10, should see the Golden Booters at home playing in the first round of the State Championship Tournament.

BC Hoop Clinic At School

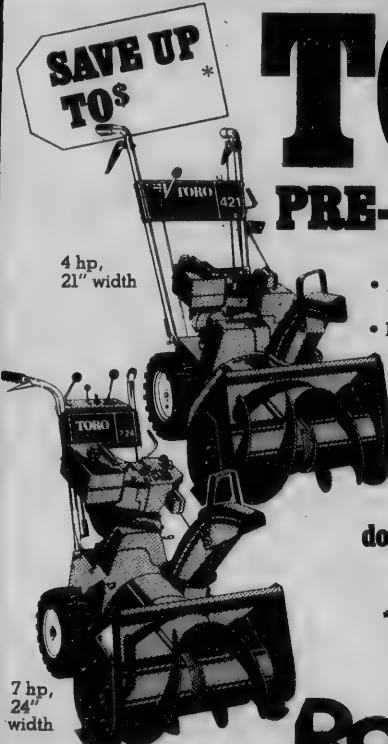

The Boston College basketball team will conduct a basketball clinic and intrasquad game at Andover High School on Thursday evening, Nov. 20. The event is free of charge and open to the public.

The clinic will begin at 7 p.m. Tom Davis, head basketball coach at BC, and his staff will be available for questions. A game condition intrasquad scrimmage will follow.

This community scrimmage program is being run in conjunction with the Boston College Club of Merrimack Valley.

In addition to the free clinic, everyone attending the event will receive a ticket to the Boston College vs. University of Lowell basketball game at Roberts Center, Wednesday, Feb. 4, compliments of Peter Hallissy.

Lawler To Captain Merrimack Iceman

Tom Lawler of Andover, an All-American forward and one of only three seniors returning to this year's squad, was elected by his teammates to captain the Merrimack College hockey team for the 1980-81 season.

The choice was met with enthusiasm by Warrior head coach Bruce Parker. "It is a good selection," commented the third year mentor, "Tom is very serious about his hockey and he will transmit his attitude to the rest of the team." While noting his qualities as a leader, Coach Parker also pointed to Lawler's abilities as a player. "Tommy is the key to our power play and the power play is the key to success in college hockey. I hope he will continue to excel in that department."

Lawler will be starting his fourth consecutive year at the varsity level. Last season he led the team in goals (29), assists (37), and total points (66). In his three years at Merrimack, the durable forward has amassed 66 goals, 73 assists, and 139 points. An All-American in only his junior year, Lawler has a chance to repeat that accomplishment, becoming the first Merrimack player ever to do so. Parker believes his chances are good: "There is a tendency for junior All-Americans to let down. But considering his approach to the game, I doubt that Tom will be that way.

Tom Lawler

He wants a great deal for the team to win both the ECAC and National Championship this year."

The new captain was a standout while at Austin Prep High School. He is the son of the late J. Thom Lawler, former Merrimack athletic director and hockey coach. Tom will officially begin his new role as captain when the Warriors visit Providence College in their season opener on Nov. 8.

Rally To Benefit Dimes March

Earn some points against birth defects at the Road Rally being held on Sunday, Nov. 9, starting from Papa Gino's in Methuen Mall at 9 a.m. This event is sponsored by the Emergency Radio Rescue Team of Lawrence to benefit the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation.

Road rallies, popular events in the west, have newly excited motorists in the east. This rally has 10 checkpoints within a 10-mile radius of Methuen Mall. Each vehicle will be given one location at a time. Navigational skills, not speed, are the criteria. Trophies will be awarded for first and second vehicle and driver to locate all 10 checkpoints.

Register for the Road Rally between 9 and 10 a.m. at the Methuen Mall parking lot adjacent to Papa Gino's. Vehicles will be individually timed and started one minute apart.

Emergency Radio Rescue will award a Club Trophy to the team whose vehicle have the shortest combined time. More information available at the March of Dimes office, 89 No. Main St., Andove

"Birth defects are the nations number one child health problem," said Dennis Brassard, president of the sponsoring club, "and exciting breakthroughs in research are just around the corner. This event gives us a chance to help provide a healthy birthright for future generations."

Seastars Teams Top Newburyport

The Andover-North Andover YMCA Seastars girls and boys teams defeated the Newburyport Blues swim team Saturday with the Seastars girls winning 226-106, and the boys, 136-96.

Cathy Bernier was a double winner for Andover in girls class A taking the 50 and 100 yard freestyle events. Carol Robb won the 200 free and was second in the 50 back. Freda Erikson finished second in the 50 breaststroke and third in the 50 free.

Matt Miele scored seconds in the 50 fly and 50 back while Kevin Bernier had thirds in the 50 free and 50 back for the class A boys.

Triple winners Abby Robb and Lisa Boudreau paced the class B girls for the Seastars as they both swam on the winning 200 medley and freestyle relays. Robb tripled in the 50 fly as did Boudreau in the 50 back. Swimming with them on the medley relay were double winner Karen Mackay and Maegan Hughes. Mackay won the 50 breaststroke. Also on the free relay were double winner Julie Peck, who took the 50 free, and Lisa Nolan who was second in the 100 free. Adding first for Andover were Jane McLarney who won the 200 free and was second in the 50 free and Mary Ann Ponti who won the 200 I.M.

Girls Soccer Team Shows Improvement

The Andover High varsity girls soccer team finished the season last week with a loss and a tie, and a final record of 4-7-1.

It was a season that saw a lot of improvement.

Belmont

The girls lost 4-0 to Belmont, despite Connie Corkery's 11 saves in the goal.

Davynne Williams, Heather Thomson and Kim Hardock were offensive standouts for the day, with Michelle Guzowski, Kim Wortheley and Jenna Powell impressive in the defense department.

Chelmsford

They turned around and tied Chelmsford 2-2, with Thomson scoring from Powell in the first quarter, and Williams scoring from Thomson in the second.

Wortheley and Powell were defensive stars, with Corkery taking the credit for nine saves.

She had 136 saves for the season versus 33 goals against, while backup goalie Lele Rochwarg had six saves and three goals against.

This season's statistics:

	G-A-PT
Heather Thomson	9-2-11
Davynne Williams	6-2-8
Karen Hardock	2-4-6
Allison Hill	2-1-3
Kim Hardock	2-1-3
Michelle Guzowski	0-2-2
Jenna Powell	0-2-2
Connie Corkery	0-2-2
Marty Beth Plaehn	1-0-1
Julie Kinsky	0-1-1
Cyndi Lee	1-0-1

Dianne Jurgen placed third in the 100 free as did Laura MacVicar in the 50 back and Jodie Boudreau in the 50 breaststroke.

Dennis Sullivan and Gregg Morava tripled for the Seastars class B boys. They both swam on the winning 200 yard medley relay with Sullivan taking the 50 breaststroke and anchoring the winning 200 free relay. Morava also won the 100 and 200 yard freestyle events. David Bellino swam on both winning relays for a double. Ted Anderson swam on the winning free relay and added seconds in the 50 and 100 free. Doug Wayland led off the 200 free relay and finished second in the 50 breaststroke.

For the class C girls Dana Grogan and Shauna Newland scored triples, both swimming on the winning 200 yard freestyle and medley relays. Grogan added a win in the 100 I.M. as did Newland in the 100 free. Amy Driscoll and Kara Hannon doubled as they both swam on winning relays. Hannon also took the 50 back while Driscoll won the 50 free. Jenny Armstutz was first in the 200 medley relay, second in the 50 breaststroke and third in the 100 free. Amy Ford also swam on the winning freestyle relay. Mary Robb was second in the 50 fly as was Christine DeMoulas in the 50 free, while Meredith McCracken was third in the 50 free.

Brian Cronin was a triple winner for Andover in boys class C. He won the 50 fly, 50 free and swam on the first place freestyle relay with Scott Bates and double winners Pat Robb and Ted Crane. Robb won the 50 free and Crane the 100 free while Bates was second in the 50 breaststroke. Bob Donovan was second in the 50 free.

Paula Bourassa led the class D girls as a triple winner taking the 100 free and anchoring both winning relays. Double winners were Robin Palmer in both relays with a third in the 50 back, Krista Carney taking the 50 free and 50 back and Betsy Armstutz winning the 100 I.M., the medley relay and placing second in the 50 breaststroke. Also swimming on the winning free relay were Coleen Hayes who was second in the 50 free and 50 back and Sarah McLarney who was third in the 100 free. Kate Robb swam on the winning medley relay and was third in the 50 breaststroke for Andover and Liz Jurek took seconds in the 100 I.M. and 100 free. Alix Rosen was second in the 50 fly and third place points were earned by Beth Cronin in the 50 free and Margaret Hart in the 50 fly.

Kevin Newman tripled and Mark Jurgen doubled for the class D boys. They both swam on the winning free relay with Newman also taking the 50 and 100 free events. Jurgen won the 50 back and was third in the 100 free. Also swimming on the winning relay were Vinnie Bates and Jonathan Butt who was third in the 50 free.

The class E girls boasted three triple winner in Nancy Crane, Brenna Cronin and Danielle Leone, and two double winners. Erika Suduiko and Diedre Sullivan. Crane won the 100 I.M., 25 fly and was on the winning medley relay. Cronin won the 25 free, 25 breaststroke and swam on the first place free relay. Leone swam both relays and added a win in the 50 free. Suduiko was first in the medley relay and 25 back and second in the 25 free. Sullivan swam both relays and was second in the 25 breaststroke. Dawn Benson was on the winning free relay, was second in the 50 free and third in the 25 free.

Matt MacVicar tripled and Paul Mitchell doubled for the class E boys. MacVicar took first in the 25 and 50 free and 25 breaststroke. Mitchell won the 100 I.M. and 25 fly. Brad Cronin took thirds in the 25 and 50 freestyle events.

Next Saturday, the Seastars boys team travels to Wakefield and on Nov. 22, the combined teams meet the swimmers from the Needham at 1 p.m. at the Haverhill Street building.

Named Athlete of Week

Tim Doran

It is not known whether Tim Doran takes a great deal of pride in his singing, but the Andover native does hum a few bars during his long treks in cross country and it does help kill a little time.

"You know how you wake up in the morning and the first song you hear kind of sticks in your mind," explained Doran. "Well, when I'm running I sort of sing some songs and it helps take my mind off the distance."

Doran must have been right on tune recently, as he covered the 5.3 mile course at Christopher Newport College last week in a time of 28:13 and for his effort was selected by the Hornet coaching staff as the Lynchburg College Athlete of the Week for the period Oct. 7-13.

"It was one of my better performances," conceded Doran about his performance at Newport News. "But I would have to say that my best performance ever was in the ODAC (Old Dominion Athletic Conference) meet last year.

"I finished eighth in that meet (covering five miles in 26:47) and I really felt I ran well. I ran a faster time at Washington & Lee (25:36) but I'm not sure that was really five miles."

Doran, who was the sixth child in a family of ten, did not eagerly begin his distance running career, as he recalled, "When my brother Peter was a senior in high school, he wanted someone to run with him and he dragged me out there."

"I was only a sophomore and had run some spring track in the ninth grade."

"After about two weeks I was beating him. I enjoyed it after I got in shape. That's the hard part, getting in shape."

The 6', 145 pounder had played all the peewee and little league sports during grammar and junior high but has no regrets about giving them up.

"I really didn't have the size for the other sports," Doran explained. "I still play the other sports for fun, like in intramurals, but I'm glad I went to running."

"I'd rather be good in something than mediocre in something else."

Asked if there was much difference between running cross country on the high school level and the collegiate level, Doran responded, "The difference basically is that you only run three miles in high school and five in college. In high school you don't have to work as hard or have the intensity. There is more pressure in college and better competition all the way down the line."

The Hornets are the defending ODAC champs and NCAA Division II title holders and Doran explained last year's team success.

"We just put it all together and had fun. There were three seniors and two juniors on last year's squad and they had talent and experience. Our 4-5-6 men were a big key, they were so close to our first three and we used to call it 'the swarm'. In the regional meet our top five runners finished something like within 20 seconds of each other."

What are the prospect for another championship this season?

"Last year I was the only outsider (freshmen in the top five)," said Doran, an honorable mention Dean's List student. "This year we have a lot of new faces. We have five freshmen on the team and they have a lot of talent and ability. I think they are starting to come around."

And if they keep closing in, they might catch Doran humming a few bars of "Oh, Happy Day" or practicing his steps in the "Hornet swarm."

Auto Show At Hynes

The Hynes Auditorium at the Prudential Center in Boston will play host to the country's fourth largest automotive exposition — the New England International Auto Show, Saturday, Nov. 8, through Sunday, Nov. 16.

The entire Auditorium, some 150,000 square feet, will be transformed into a showcase for over 400 of the all new 1981 automobiles from Detroit, and the foreign imports from Japan, England, France, Italy, Germany and Sweden.

The new breed of cars for 1981 are new and improved in every sense of the word — new aerodynamic design, new body styles, new suspension systems, and many other new electronic and mechanical innovations, all designed to maximize fuel efficiency for greater operating economy.

Show hours are 1 to 11 p.m. daily except Sunday, Nov. 9, when the Show will run from 1 to 9 p.m. and on the closing Sunday, Nov. 16, when the Show will run from 1 to 7 p.m.

Dolphins Win Championship

By Jim Wiseman and Dean LoPresti

The stage was set on a perfect Sunday fall afternoon for the championship game between the Bancroft Dolphins and the Central Colts in junior football league action.

At gametime both teams were tied for the lead with identical 3-1-1 records. The Dolphins have displayed a greater ability to score points while the Colts on three occasions this season, had demonstrated their ability to come from behind to tie or win a ballgame.

Dolphins 26 - Colts 6

In addition to game captains, both teams had honorary co-captains; for the Colts, Jeff Manning and Mathew Grant, and "Pokey" Lynch and Brendan Finneran for the Dolphins.

The Dolphins won the coin toss which was called by "Pokey" and they elected to receive. The kickoff was returned by Scott Grant, who was brought down by Matthew Aumais at mid-field. The Phins then took over and after three first downs, Mark Polakow broke loose on a thirty yard touchdown run which was nullified by a clipping call. The Dolphins, however, continued their drive with consistent gains by Polakow, Scott Grant, Chris Casey and Rob Nelson. The Dolphins fumbled the ball away to Colts Aumais; but on the very next play, the Colts gave the ball back to the Phins on a fumble, recovered by Nelson. For the balance of the period, the Phins continued their drive with short gains by Casey, Mike Powers and Polakow.

At the start of the second quarter, the Phins drove to the two yard line where Casey carried for the touchdown. The extra point was no good. After the kick, the Colts were called for offside and on the next play Robert Ditroia scampered 50 yards to pay dirt. When the extra point failed, the score was deadlocked at 6-6 with another demonstration of the Colts ability to come from behind. On the ensuing kickoff, the ball struck an interior lineman and was recovered by the Colts. After a five yard gain by the running of Robby Carpentier, the Colts fumbled the ball away. Now the Phins quickly got underway with sustained gains by Rob Nelson and Mark Polakow. Just before the halftime show, quarterback Scott Grant hit Nelson on the bootleg pass, who ran it in for the score. After missing the extra point, the halftime score was Dolphins 12 - Colts 6.

When the B teams came onto the field, their only ambition was "I have to score as a B-teamer." So the quarter started and the Colts were to receive. The ball started at midfield and with the running of John Twomey and Matthew McManus, got the ball to the Phins 43. On a fourth down play McManus missed the first down by a yard, thanks to the tackle from Todd McAllister. The Dolphins then took over at their 43 and brought the ball down to the Colt two. The ball got there with outstanding running by Anthony Scioli gaining over five yards on each run. Brendan Lynch and Louie Lofresti also helped with some good gainers. The defence was held up by Justin Fox, Jack Dalton, Todd Morton, David Rourke, Erick Shenker and Peter Trede. At the end of the quarter, the ball was left at the Colt two with the Phins A team to take over.

On the first play of the fourth quarter, Mark Polakow drove the two yds for the touchdown. The extra point was good. On the kickoff the Dolphins recovered the ball on the Colt 47. From then on in, the Phins Nelson, Polakow and Grant brought the ball to the Colt five and, on the next play, Grant went in for the touchdown. Chris Casey got the extra point. The Colts then took the ball for five plays and with some nice passes and a run by Robert Ditroia, seemed to have a good drive started, but it soon ended when on fourth and ten, they could not get the first down due to a good tackle by Grant. Then the B teams came back in and the Phins had the ball for the last series of plays.

Aumais, David Rourke, Peter Trede, Mike Hart, Chris Bartley, Jay Lahiff, Jack Dalton, Eric Shenker, Scott Wallace, John Twomey, Justin Fox, David Sullivan, Robert Manning, Anthony Lauterie, Earl Abdoo and Andrew Grant.

Redskins 7 - Vikings 6

It was a brisk autumn day as the Indian Ridge Vikings squared off against the Redskins. This day was all-important to both teams because it decided the second and first place ranking in the Andover junior football league. The Vikings drew first blood when Walter Radulski crashed through the Redskins line on a two yard run to give the Vikings a 6-0. The Vikings extra point attempt failed though as the Redskins line held firm. It wasn't until the third quarter that the Redskins attack mounted. After romping down the field on an extended scoring drive, the Skins finally hit pay dirt. The score was then tied 6-6; but unlike the Vikings, the Redskins got the all important extra-point. That put them on top 7-6 to stay. Thus the Redskins wind up the year in third place and the Vikings, fourth.

Standouts for the Indian Ridge Vikings were Robert Salisbury, John Perry. Rich

Winter Survival Campaign

Nearly 1300 New England communities are expected to take part in a federal public education effort to alert citizens to the dangers of winter storms and household fires.

Conducted by Region I of the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA), the Winter Survival Campaign seeks the cooperation of municipal officials and community service groups.

FEMA Regional Director Stephen J. McGrail, in a letter to local government leaders, stated that the campaign is aimed at saving lives and reducing hardship through an increased public awareness of the problems of winter. He pointed out that his agency will furnish informational materials, at no charge, to support their campaigns.

Among the items offered by FEMA are two leaflets, "Winter Storms" and "Winter Fires" which can be ordered by any group in limited amounts.

Organizations wishing to assist the campaign are asked to write: Region I, FEMA, 442 J. W. McCormack POCH, Boston, MA 02109.

Dolphins Win Championship

Andover Hockey Association

Wilmington League Squirt A's

Andover 1, Medford 6

Although the score was lopsided, Andover played a good game against undefeated Medford in the strong Wilmington League. In the opening 3 minutes of play, Medford scored three times. With a 3 to 0 deficit, Andover started to regroup and instead of backing off, they began striking back and the play evened out. Tom Tormey and Hugh Maginnis, on good defensive work, broke the puck out to Pat Breen who hit Robert Stoltz with a nice pass. Robert swung in on right wing, pulling the defense wide and put a hard shot on Medford's goalie which went in. From this point on, play went back and forth for the rest of the period. It wasn't until the last minute that Medford was able to score again, thus ending the period with 4 to Andover's 1. Ian Anderson, Andover's goalie, made 9 saves during this period.

The second period play was fast and back and forth during which time, Andover increased their shots on net and Medford reduced theirs. However, the advantage on shots went to Medford. Peter Donegan and Hugh Maginnis played well on defense during this period. Offensively, the line of Brent Rafferty, Glen Farnham and Steve McSweeney had the best opportunities. Steve picked the puck up in Andover's zone and sent it to Brent who passed to Glen. Glen broke in alone on the Medford goalie, but his backhand shot missed the net. While Ian Anderson played a strong game throughout, the second period closed with him stopping 3 point blank shots. In all Ian stopped 10 additional shots during this period. The period ended with the score still 4 to 1 in Medford's favor.

The third period started with what appeared to be a replay of the first. On the opening face-off, the Medford center broke in to Andover's zone alone and scored. Duke McNamara, Brent Rafferty and John Gilmartin had some excellent opportunities during this period, but Medford's goalie was able to deny all attempts. Medford scored their final goal at the ten minute mark. One of their skaters looped behind our net and Ian Anderson moved in the same direction expecting him to come around. The skater turned and was able to put the puck in an open net. Andover never let up and got the better of the play for the remainder of the game. Due to the pressure, Medford committed several penalties. Although short-handed, all efforts were denied. At a minute, on a nice pass from Robert Stoltz, Pat Breen split the Medford defense. Breaking in alone, Medford tripped Pat and on the way down, with a super effort, he still managed a shot. That penalty gave Andover a "penalty shot." Pat came in, faked their goalie, but just missed the corner of the net. This was typical for the day and Andover's defense continued to be frustrated as they put the pressure on, but were unable to score. Goalie Anderson stopped 28 shots for Andover. The final score was Andover 1 and Medford 6.

an unwarranted score. Andover cruised to an easy lead and maintained it until the last 26 seconds of the game. What looked like a treat almost turned into a nasty trick. The North End team seemed to rise from the dead and turned into ghouls and goblins. However, Andover withstood the fright and was able to end the game with a tie. The first period opened quickly and Andover pressed early. While Andover dominated positional play throughout the period and had the better scoring opportunities, the period ended in a 0 to 0 tie. Goalie Anderson made 7 good saves during the period. The defensive pair of Tom Tormey and Joe Lyons played a strong period by breaking the puck out of their own end and moving the offense up.

The second period saw Andover's offense come alive. The line of Duke McNamara, Matt Adams and Hugh Maginnis (playing both offense and defense tonight), broke into the No. End's zone on a good rush by Hugh. On the shot by Hugh, their goalie made the initial save. On the rebound, Matt Adams picked it up and put it past their goalie at the ten minute mark. The play continued as it had in the first period. It wasn't until the 3 minute mark that Andover struck again. Breaking out of our zone, Doug Bleszinski pushed the puck forward and Robert Stoltz picked it up. Robert poked it past a diving defenseman, went over him and was able to beat the goalie to the puck and put it by him, thus ending the period with a 2 to 0 lead. Goalie Anderson stopped another 8 shots with the help of good defensive work by Hugh Maginnis and Peter Donegan.

Andover's offense was stalled by good defensive work on the part of the North End team. While still maintaining territorial advantage and with several 2 on 1 breaks, the puck couldn't find its way to the net. The No. End team was beginning to press and forced the play on Andover. Ian was tested several times during this period. The North End broke in twice alone, but Ian made the saves. The line of Brent Rafferty, Steve McSweeney, and Glen Farnham had Andover's last good opportunity. Glen picked up the puck in our zone and carried it down the left wing. He put a nice pass on Brent's stick, who made a nice shot on net. The rebound came to Steve who put a second host on their goalie. He tied the puck up and ended the pressure. On the face off, the North End broke out of their zone and on a nice pass got another break-away. This time, they managed to score at the 3 minute mark

This seemed to fire them up and, as if possessed, they came at Andover who appeared spooked. With a minute left, the North End pulled their goalie. The game paid off when they scored with 26 seconds left in the game, while pinned in their own end. Andover managed to hang on for the tie, leaving us still undefeated in the Danver's league. Goalie Anderson stopped 26 shots in another good effort.

Squirt A's Wilmington League Billerica 4, Andover 1

Andover played a superb game Thursday night against a strong Billerica team. The game was scoreless for the first eight Bourdelaïs, Ron Geis, Steve Redgate, Walter Rajulski and David Vickers. Standouts for the Skins were John Terrior, Scott Kelley, Ron Peck, Keith Driscoll and Mike Lane.

Final Standings

Vikings	1-3-2-18-39

minutes with both teams flying up and down the ice, often changing on the fly with very few whistles being blown. Billerica had a slight edge in play, but the Andover defense of Peter Donegan, Tom Tormey, Joe Lyons and Hugh Maginnis kept Billerica from getting a clear shot on net and Ian Anderson brilliantly denied Billerica any goals.

Late in the first period a Billerica forward broke in all alone and shot for the upper corner, but was denied by a tremendous save of Ian Anderson. The puck unfortunately rebounded right onto a Billerica stick and was quickly banged into the net.

The play continued at a very fast pace up and down the ice for the next few minutes. Billerica sustained its first penalty of the night and Andover almost capitalized when John Gilmartin passed back to Joey Lyons, who spun around and let it go only to hit the post. Billerica cleared the puck out and ended up with a two on one breakaway and managed to get the third rebound past Ian Anderson for a 2 to 0 lead.

The second period was just as fast as the first. The line of Breen, Stoltz and Bleszinski put some good pressure on but couldn't slip it into the net. Billerica came right back with some good pressure on Ian, but they couldn't score either. The pace continued furiously until John Gilmartin received a tripping penalty while digging for the puck in the Billerica corner. Billerica wasted no time and with some excellent passing put in their third goal of the night.

Andover did not let down, but rather came back even stronger late in the second period. Tom Tormey made a spin around move in his own end and passed one to McSweeney on the right boards who then fired it over to Farnham up the left side who in turn saw Raftery moving up

Warrior Aquagals Up Record To 4-4

Andover 83, Arlington 66

The Andover High School girls' swim team boosted their record to 4-4 with a victory over Arlington on Tuesday. Andover swept the first three places in three events; the 200 free — Robin Boyle, Lucia Derba, Amy Lander; the 500 free — Gretchen Winn, Lander, Barbara Bixby and the 100 back — Lisa Caputo, Jennifer Bottomly and Jill Bottomly. Andover also had seven other first place finishes, a though three of them were unofficial and received no points, the medley relay — Lisa Caputo, Cynthia Surret — 100 breast; and the 400 free relay of Lisa Kleschinsky, Robin Boyle, Tracy Dowd and Debbie Bates. Second place finishers were Tracy Dowd(un) — 50 free, Maria Barbagallo — 50 free, Robin Boyle — 100 free, and the 40 free relay team of Gretchen Munn, Allison Webster, Lisa Caputo and Lucia Derba.

Third places were taken by the medley relay team of Jill Bottomly, Margie Safron, Jennifer Bottomly and Gretchen Munn; Cynthia Surret — 200 I.M.; Jenny Rubin 100 fly, placing fourth in the 100 breast was Jenna Himber, in fifth place for Andover were Brenda Glynn — 200 I.M., Nancy Sohler 100 free, and Margie Safron 100 breast. The divers — Denise Ahern, Peggy Harrington, Ann-Marie Tanin and Mary Anne Salisbury — couldn't dive. 50 the made up a 400 free relay which beat Arlington's second relay by 45 seconds.

Andover 74, Burlington 97

The medley relay team of Caputo, Surret, Dowd and Bates once again started the meet with a win. Andover held the lead for more than half the meet, but they couldn't keep their hands on it. Andover took six first places out of eleven events. Lisa Kleschinsky 200 free; Tracy Dowd 200 I.M., 100 fly; Debbie Bates 8 50 free; and Cynthia Surret, 100 breast. Finishing second for Andover were Robin Boyle, 200 free; Mary Anne Salisbury, diving; Bates, 100 free; Caputo, 100 back. Third place finishers were Surret, 100 I.M.; and Gretchen Munn 500 free. Taking fourth and fifth places for Andover were Caputo, 50 free, 4th; Lucia Derba, fifth, 200 free, 100 free.

Ann Marie Tanin, fourth, diving; Amy Lander, fifth, 500 free, Kleschinsky, fourth back, and Jenna Himber, fifth, 100 breast. Also finishing second was the 400 free relay team. Andover is sending six girls to Northerns this Friday and Saturday at Medford. Robin Boyle, Tracy Dowd and Lisa Kleschinsky, sophomores, Cynthia Surret, junior, and Lisa Caputo and Debbie Bates, seniors. These girls are also going to states, to be held the following weekend at B.U.

Heart Disease Bulletin

If you wish to cook a meal specifically for a healthy heart, Heartwise can give you the recipe. If you wish to read a book on the do's and don'ts for heart patients, Heartwise will review and suggest one. These are only two of the topics Heartwise, a bi-monthly bulletin of information related to heart disease addresses, and offered as a public service of Bon Secours Hospital's Department of Education.

The bulletin is offered free of charge and distributed to all persons interested in information about the care and treatment of the heart and related diseases.

If you wish to receive a copy of Heartwise please contact the Department of Education at the hospital.

Rep Play Extended

News England Repertory Theatre's production of Tartuffe will be extended until Nov. 16. This hilarious comedy is as topical and outrageous now as it was when Moliere wrote it in 1669.

Along with Richard Wilbur's brilliant translation, the Rep has added a few more sparks of wit to surprise and delight the audience.

The theatre is located on the corner of Oxford and Chatham Streets.

Performance are held on Thursday and Friday nights at 8 p.m., Saturdays at 5 and 9 p.m. and Sundays at 2 and 8 p.m.

On The Soccer Fields

By She Livermore

The Fall soccer season is almost over with final games scheduled for next weekend. The Golden Booters, Andover's varsity soccer team have been enjoying a winning season and have won themselves a berth in the State Championship. Prospects are good that their first game will be played at home on the Andover High varsity field on Monday, November 10, starting at 3:15. The single elimination setup of the League requires that you must win in order to advance. All soccer enthusiasts should plan to see the game on the 10th to cheer on the local team.

Brief results of all of the games played last weekend in the Andover Soccer Association Fall League, appear below:

Under 10 Division

Sockers 5, Hurricanes 2
Rogues 2, Sockers 0

The Sockers held a one goal lead at the end of the first two quarters. In the final quarter the forward line put on the pressure, controlled much of the play, and upped their total goals to five, to win the victory points. Derek Holmes scored for the Sockers on a pass from Thatcher Worthen, as well as Matt Cinelli on a pass from Michael Faraci, Matt Pothier (2) on passes from Tim Hagerty and Thatcher Worthen direct; Kevin Foley booted in the Hurricanes' goals. BOW: Todd Goyette and Brian Donnellan (Hurricanes) as well as Matt Corbett, Robbie Di'Adamo, Matt Cinelli and Michael Faraci (Sockers).

In a make-up game with the Rogues, the Sockers found themselves challenged by a strong Rogues forward line, determined to get on the scoreboard. They scored in the second and final quarter (Jim Sullivan, one on a pass from Rich Atkinson) and good defense denied the Sockers many attempts to score in the first and third quarters.

The Rogues won the victory points. BOW: Paul VanDerWielen, Ricky Pass and Jason Garland (Rogues) as well as Chris Gray and Jonathon Penney (Sockers).

Sting 2, Stompers 1

The Sting were more successful in getting the ball into the nets in their game with the Stompers. They tallied in the first and third quarters (Peter Caruso on a pass from David Sopp, and Ricky Banz direct) whilst the Stompers could only muster one, booted in in the same quarter by Doug Howes on a fine pass by George Bilger. BOW: Jeff Brodie, Matt Meagher and Mike Lastrina (Stompers).

Rogues 4, Fury 1

The spirited Fury controlled much of the play in their game with the Rogues and made many attempts to score the elusive goal, succeeding on one only occasion (Joey Tavilla). The Rogues forward line had no problem at all getting the ball into the net, a total of four times before the final whistle (Jim Sullivan (3) on passes from Rich Atkinson and David Lucey, and Rich Atkinson on a pass from Kevin Henderson) to win the points. BOW: Jim Sullivan, Rich Atkinson and David Lucey (rogues) as well as Patrick Hayes, David Stark and Scott Livermore (Fury).

Surfs 1, Metros 1

The Surf tallied in the first quarter when Robbie Hughes scored on a pass from Mickey Schallop. The Metros worked hard to tie it up, and take the lead, especially in the final quarter, and when Chris Eggert scored on a pass by Steve Napolitano, one of their objectives was accomplished; alert goaltending denied them the win, and both teams split the points. BOW: Michael Blaustein (Surfs) as well as John Duval, Dan Isaacs and Alex Egmont (Metros).

Rowdies 3, TeaMen 0

The Rowdies dominated much of the action in their game with the TeaMen and the fullbacks had their work cut out for them throughout the contest. The Rowdies tallied in the first, second and third quarters (Chris McAnally (2) and John Russell) and they won the victory points. BOW: Paul DeMarco, Glenn Harrison and Gary Ayers (TeaMen) as well as Denny Palmer, Mike Smith and Keith Abernathy (Rowdies).

Strikers 2, Roughnecks 0

The play was very even for the first three quarters and neither team tallied, however, in the last minute of the game, the Strikers were awarded a penalty kick which was completed by Jeff Ranelli and with ten seconds remaining, Billy Martin made it two for the Strikers on a pass from Jeff Ranelli. BOW: Michael Sintros and Barry Finegold (Strikers) as well as Tim Plaeahn, Andy Shea and Allen Boucher (Roughnecks).

Express 4, Quakes 0

The Express controlled much of the action in their game with the Quakes and tallied a total of four goals to win the victory points. Scoring for the Express were J. B. Burgess on a pass from Mark Leinson, Toby Frothingham on a pass from Steve Mencis, Kyle Murphy on a pass from Toby Frothingham, and Steve Mencis on

How we improved the 1980 Rabbit Diesel:

Introducing the 1981 Rabbit Diesel.

We never seem to just let well enough alone.

Our 1981 model actually has an engine that's even bigger than last year's. Which means you'll get a more powerful car, with better acceleration and passing power.

Plus the kind of astonishing mileage and superb comfort our Rabbit tempted you with last year. In fact, EPA estimated 42 mpg, 56 mpg highway estimate. (Use "estimated mpg" for comparison. Mpg varies with speed, trip length, weather. Actual highway mpg will probably be less.)

the middle. Glen laid a soft pass on Brent's stick, who took it in full strike, swung the defense and beat the goalie to the stick side. This put Andover back in the game with another period to go.

The kids knew they were playing well because Billerica usually beats most teams in double figures and Andover could have had another goal or two.

The pace continued very fast into the third period, but neither team could score. With less than two minutes to go, Billerica got a tip in deflection past Ian Anderson which made it 4 to 1 and ended the scoring. Andover showed a lot of hustle and this was probably the best team effort considering the strong opposition. Andover's goalie, Ian Anderson never played goal before this season and is getting better with each game. He is learning how to position himself, cut down angles and not to give rebounds. Strong goaltending is going to strengthen this good Squirt "A" team.

PeeWee B Team

Danvers League

Andover 3, Beverly 2

Andover is beginning to meet tougher competition, having been moved up to Division 1, and continues to show strength. They were ahead 3-0 in the middle of the third period against a tough Beverly Team, but tired noticeably. Beverly then put in two quick goals when Andover couldn't tie up the puck in the crease, and later when they left two forwards set up alone in front of the net. However, Andover then held on with determined defense to preserve the win.

Andover held the edge in play until the last few minutes, and only exceptional Beverly goaltending held down the score. During the first period, Andover had to kill off three penalty situations, getting very effective play from Dave Riddiford, Matt Alden, Kyle McCabe, Peter Trede, John Gangi and Brian Gibson. Then with only seconds left in the period, McCabe picked up a partially blocked pass, set up by Matt Young and Chris Sauppo, made a neat move around a defenseman, and tucked a shot into the corner to get Andover on the board.

In the second period, wings Dan Hagerty and Mike Nelligan, with Bill Bruno at center put on several fine offensive drives and all three had good scoring opportunities denied by sharp Beverly defense. Midway in the period, Bill Bruno set up Brian Gibson high in the slot. Brian lifted a perfect arc shot through a screen, and dropped it in over the goalies shoulder, to give Andover a much needed cushion.

In the third period, McCabe scored his second goal of the night, tipping Tom Herling's hard shot from the point, and redirecting it under the off-balance goalie.

Following Beverly's two quick goals and their threat to tie up the game, Mark Berberian, along with the rest of the team, played exceptional and dogged defense to hold off several Beverly bids. Chris Hansberry and Chris Adams played solid goal in backboning a well deserved win.

Wilmington League

Andover 1, Lawrence 6

Andover tried hard, but was dominated and kept disorganized by a big, strong Lawrence team which played a physical, hard checking game and carried the play throughout the game. Almost all Lawrence's goals came from hard digging in front of the net, where they just wouldn't be cleared out.

Despite being outscored and outplayed Andover had many good moments, but none of them with consistency. Mark Berberian, Kyle McCabe and Matt Young had a number of breakaways which were broken up only by hustling defense and excellent goaltending. Berberian was stopped on one of these by being pulled down from behind, which cost Lawrence a penalty situation. But good shorthanded play denied Andover's power play efforts. This line had Andover's only goal when defenseman Tom Herling sent away Berberian with McCabe on a breakaway. Mark drew the goalie over and slid a little pass to Kyle to finish a picture play.

Defenseman John Gangi was robbed on a shot as he trailed a breakaway and picked up a rebound on the shot. And his defense partner, Brian Gibson had a number of fine opportunities turned aside. Dan Hagerty skated his wing well and set up several scoring attempts which also were unsuccessful due to Lawrence's dogged defense and checking. Mike Nelligan made a rush down the side only to have his pass from behind the goal line played off with a good defensive move. Chris Sauppo, along with linemates, Peter Trede and Matt Alden started some good bids, but again were held off by close checking.

After several good wins for Andover, it was a case of having the tables turned by a fine team.

Pee Wee A

Andover's Pee Wee A's played their fourth tie in the last five games on Saturday, deadlocking with Wilmington, 2-2. Andover again outplayed and outshot the opposition but luck abandoned them, as good scoring bids either went just wide or hit the posts.

The first two periods of the game were scoreless. Andover had a number of early chances but failed to convert them into scores. Center David Young, out on a line with George Heseltine and Earl Abdo, was frustrated three different times after his linemates had set him up with good plays. The same frustration plagued Timmy Donovan, Mark Neaves and Stevie Donovan when they were on the ice, as all of their shots were stopped or went wide.

Wilmington's infrequent forays into the Andover zone during the first two periods were well handled by defensemen Matt Shine, Jamie O'Brien, and Shannon McCabe. The game swung Wilmington's way temporarily late in the second period when Andover was assessed a bench minor followed quickly by a major game misconduct on an Andover player for an infraction apparently seen only by the official. Wilmington capitalized on the shorthanded situation by scoring two quick goals. Andover then settled down and scored two very quick goals of its own. The scores came with Andover's highest scoring unit of David Bartle, Mosa Kaleel and Cort Pomeroy on the ice. David scored the first goal unassisted and assisted on the second goal, scored by Mosa. Cort then just missed the open corner on a shot which would have given Andover the lead. This line's offensive effort in this game and in several others was aided by the play of defensemen Paul Gilmartin and David Curtis. The final seven minutes of the game saw each team get a number of chances to score but the two goalies, particularly Andover's Greg Najjar, came up with excellent stops to preserve the tie.

Swampscott 3, Andover 0

Andover's Pee Wee A's were shut out for only the second time in eighteen games on Sunday in Danvers when they lost to Swampscott 3-0. The game was not one of Andover's better efforts of the season. Andover outshot the opposition 23-16, but the number of good shots was about even.

Andover's offense has been sputtering over the last several games. The A's three lines, made up of George Heseltine (LW), Mark Neaves (C), and Earl Abdoo (RW); Cort Pomeroy (LW), Mosa Kaleel (C), and David Bartle (RW); and Jamie O'Brien (LW), David Young (C), and Stevie Donovan (RW), all seem to be getting their scoring chances but the puck is simply not going into the net for them. The play of the defensive corps — David Curtis, Timmy Donovan, Paul Gilmartin, Shannon McCabe and Matt Shine — and the two goalies, Greg Najjar and Kenny Young, has also been very good generally, so there is no single area the coaching staff can concentrate on to break the recent string of four low scoring ties and two low score losses. The A's will play next on Sunday in Danvers.

Marblehead 4, Andover 3

Andover's Squirt B's built up an early 3-0 lead in their Saturday game in Danvers but could not hold on as Marblehead scored four unanswered goals to win 4-3.

David Sopp scored all three Andover goals in the first period for a hat trick. His first goal was unassisted and came when the game was less than a minute old. On his second shift of the game he scored his second and third goals. David's linemates, Gary Bleszinski and Todd Roycroft, played well in the early going and Gary earned an assist on one of the goals, as did defenseman DJ Camarota. DJ's partner, Danny Ianodoli, broke up a couple of Marblehead rushes in the first period and goalie Michelle DiStefano made some good stops.

Andover's offense in the second period was led by the Eddie Chaisson-Jimmy Morris-Eric Cutler line, each of whom had good scoring bids stopped by the Marblehead goalie. Despite Marblehead's two second period goals, Andover's defensemen, particularly Chip Stella and Timmy Sullivan, played well in the period.

passes from Doug Bleszinski and Tony Cioffi. BOW: David Wager and Lonnie Kallfeltz (Express).

Diplomats 5, North Andover Chameleons 0

The Diplomats dominated the play in their game with the Chameleons and tallied a total of five goals in the second and fourth quarters to win the victory points. Scoring for the Diplomats were Susan Hartigan, Debbie Williams (2), Stephanie Kuo, and Kerry Fitzpatrick. BOW: Megan Simpson and Nicole Vandenberg.

Lancers 1, Whitecaps 1

The Lancers took the lead in the first quarter when Sarah Leary booted in the ball on passes from Christina Beauregard and Tricia Novelline. The Whitecaps worked hard to tie it up and when Pam Egan tallied in the third quarter, they accomplished their objective. There were no further goals and the game ended in a tie. BOW: Lindsay Curley and Christina Beauregard (Lancers) as well as Diane Hevehan, Christina McDuffie and Catherine Allard (Whitecaps).

Cosmos 2, Sounders 1

The game was tied up at the end of the third quarter, Nancy Abramson having scored for the Cosmos on a pass from Michelle Gerroir, and Kelly Darwin for the Sounders. The Cosmos put on the pressure in the final quarter, anxious for the win, and when Nancy Abramson tallied again, they were the victors. BOW: Wendy Blais and Nancy Abramson (Cosmos) as well as Emily Trespas, Jane Sullivan and Julie Darwin (Sounders).

Timbers 2, Aztecs 0

The Timbers played a strong first quarter, during which they tallied twice (Debbi Freeman, one on a pass from Trina Picardi). The Aztecs forward line made many attempts to get on the scoreboard, particularly in the second quarter, but were not successful, and the Timbers won the points. BOW: Erin Fuller, Dainia Gammon and Cara Workman (Timbers) as well as Maryellen Torrisi and Joan Asgeirsson (Aztecs).

Kicks 0,

North Andover Terrapins 0

The Kicks dominated the play in their game with the Terrapins but were never able to get the ball into the nets and themselves on the scoreboard. When the final whistle blew, both goalies were smiling having won shutouts for their teams. BOW: Katie Karp, Kerri Flaherty, Kim Lowe, Beth Howe, and Laura Phieffer.

Tornadoes 1,

North Andover Salamanders 0

The only goal of the contest was scored by Krissi Carothers in the second quarter to win the points for the Tornadoes. It is interesting to note that the Tornadoes have not been scored upon in their last five outings. BOW: The entire Tornadoes lineup.

Under 12 Division

Coventry 1, Arsenal 0

Coventry took the lead in the first quarter when Chris Sapuppo tallied on a pass from Wayne Crowninshield, and worked hard to increase their advantage particularly in the second quarter. Goalies Tim Higgins and Matt Alden guarded their nets with much class, however, and denied all efforts. Arsenal never did find the range and Coventry won the victory points. BOW: Steve Colitz and Chris Abell (Coventry).

Ipswich 2, Chelsea 1

Ipswich tallied in the second quarter when Bill Shepard found the range on a pass from Scott Powers. Chelsea came back in the third quarter and tied it up when Michael Coco scored on a pass from Shawn Kravetz. Both teams battled in the final quarter for the winning goal and when Raj Sheel scored, he won the points for Ipswich. BOW: Lance Kallfeltz, Jim Reagan and Scott Friese (Ipswich) as well as Matt Shine, Bill Earnshaw, Mark Neaves and Chris Nelson (Chelsea).

Liverpool 4, Leeds 0

Liverpool tallied in every quarter (Mike Nelligan on a pass from Cort Pomeroy, Matt Murphy off a corner kick by Andy Lascher, Cort Pomeroy and Andy Lascher). Leeds played aggressively throughout the contest but either their shots went wide or were blocked by goalie Casey Plant. BOW: Dave Young, Mike Nelligan and Tom Sutton (Liverpool) as well as Mike O'Connor, Ed Meagher and Tom Herling (Leeds).

If it were not for their work and some excellent stops by goalie Mike Murnane, Marblehead might have had five goals.

After Marblehead built the 4-3 lead, the Andover line centered by Matty Pothier went to work and nearly pulled out the tie. Matty and wingers Michael DiStefano and Jonathan Shine all had more than one excellent scoring bid turned away. New wingman John Constantine played very well in his first game for the Squirt B's.

Crystal Palace 2, Blackpool 1

Crystal Palace tallied in the second quarter (Robbie Foley on a pass from John Nuzzo) to take the lead. Blackpool controlled the play in the third quarter and they tied it up when Scott Wilkins completed a direct kick. Crystal Palace anxious to preserve the win, worked hard to increase their score in the final quarter and when Henning Ohlenbusch booted in the ball on a pass from Tom DeLeire and Dave McDonough, his team won the points. BOW: Russ LaMontagne and Jeff Smith (Crystal Palace) as well as Rick Tesman, Mike Burke and Chris Poor (Blackpool).

Annual Bazaar

The Salem Chapter 57, Order of the Eastern Star, is putting the final touches on their Country Harvest Star Bazaar, slated for Saturday, Nov. 8, in the Masonic Temple, Main Street, Salem, N.H. It will get underway at 10 a.m. with coffee, home-made muffins and donuts. During the noon hours there will be a sandwich bar with favorite soups and harvest breads.

The Bazaar concludes with a harvest corned beef and cabbage supper at 5 and 6 p.m.

Sunderland tallied four goals (Eric Friedenson, one on a pass from Mal Galvin, Rob Moody on a pass from Jim Phieffer, and Scott Brink on a pass from Jamie O'Brien) during the contest. The spirited Manchester players could only muster one booted in by Tim Donovan in the final moments of play and Sunderland won the points. BOW: Scott Goldman, Mark Peters and David Kaplowitz (Sunderland) as well as Brian Costello, Walt Anderson and Kenny Duval (Manchester).

Chickadees 4, Warblers 1

The Chickadees controlled much of the play in their game with the Warblers and booted in a total of five goals (one was dismissing the Warblers to one. Scoring for the Chickadees were Elizabeth Pastor on a pass from Karen Mitchell, Kristine Buchanan on a pass from Windy Carothers, Jackie Lynch, and Windy Carothers. BOW: Maujra Dunn and Cheryl Crawford (Chickadees).

Flickers 2, Robins 1

The Flickers won the victory points with the extra goal in a hotly defended contest.

The Robins played a very strong third quarter but excellent defensive tactics held them to one successful shot on the nets. Suzanne Karp scored for the Flickers on a pass from Karen Pike and Susan Clark made it two by scoring on a corner house (Flickers).

Doves 3, Finches 1
Doves 0, Jays 2

The game was all tied up at the end of the first quarter, Marci Lebowitz having scored for the Finches and Julie Boland for the Doves on a pass from Ronnie Kovner. The Doves increased their lead by two in the third quarter (Gillian Recesso, and Julie Boland on a pass from Gillian Recesso) with the prevailing winds behind their backs, and they won the victory points. BOW: Ellen Byrnes, Mary Dolan and Julie Boland (Doves) as well as Sheila Hamilton, Shelley O'Brien and Kelly Feeley (Finches).

Camera Club Presents Programs

The Lawrence Camera Club always welcomes visitors to its weekly programs and extends a special invitation to the public of the Greater Merrimack Valley area to attend the first two programs in November, which will be held at the Greater Lawrence Regional Vocational Technical High School, 57 River Road, Exit 19 from Route 93, Andover, main auditorium located at the rear of the building complex.

On Thursday, Nov. 6, at 7:30 p.m., there will be a showing of the 15th Audubon International Exhibition of Nature Photography by Jo and Gil Fernandez, APSA, MNEC. This program is made up of the best in nature slides submitted by the top photographers from around the world, hosted by the Lawrence Camera Club and co-sponsored by the Lowell Camera Club.

Thursday, Nov. 13, at 8 p.m., the club will present "My Heart's in the Highlands" by Millie Matasso of North Andover, one of its own members. Through her creative techniques, haunting Scottish melodies, lap-dissolve projection and stereo sound, Ms. Matasso's program transports you through the grandeur and glory of the diverse land that is Scotland.

at stake tomorrow afternoon when the Blue Devils of Punchard High meet the Methuen Rangers at the Methuen Highfield Stadium.

Attorney Anna M. Greeley, chairman of the school committee, has announced her candidacy for the office of town treasurer in the election next March. Miss Greeley, a resident of 31 Cheever Circle, will thus relinquish her school committee post. Her term expires in March.

The Acme Concrete Co. has applied for permission to operate a concrete storage plant and to mix concrete on its property on Fletcher Street. The request will be heard by the Board of Appeals Monday night at 8 in town hall.

10 Years Ago — November 1970

Andover retains its record for twins in schools. A year ago, Woburn made claim to having the most sets of twins in a public school with ten. At that time, the Sanborn School rightfully refuted the claim and produced 11 sets of twins attending classes there. This year the Doherty School breaks all records with 12 sets of twins perambulating the corridors and classrooms.

The former Central fire station on Park Street will be abandoned as a drop-in center for youths and demolished. This was the decision of the selectmen Monday night and the board voted to order the student activities center group to leave the premises by Sunday and that demolition proceedings be instituted on Monday.

Calling attention to the Prisoners of War, persons missing in action and the injured and infirm veterans in hospitals, J.C. Doherty asked his fellow veterans to rededicate their efforts to the remembrance of "the living dead" during brief, solemn Veteran's Day ceremonies at Spring Grove Cemetery Wednesday morning.

Doherty School addition gymnasium and cafeteria plans will be rolled out Monday in a 5 p.m. public meeting of the building committee in town hall. The hope on all sides is that rolling out architect Arthur Brown's latest plans will iron out almost all remaining differences between the school administration and the building committee on cafeteria traffic flow control, height of the gym ceiling, and the gym's two teaching stations.

NOTICE OF FIDUCIARY'S ACCOUNT

To all persons interested in the estate of GEORGE A. STANLEY, JUNIOR late of Andover, in said County, deceased.

You are hereby notified pursuant to Mass. R. Civ. P. Rule 72 that the tenth, eleventh and twelfth accounts of PRISCILLA C. STANLEY as Trustee (the fiduciary) under the will of said deceased for the benefit of PRISCILLA C. STANLEY have been presented to said Court for allowance.

If you desire to preserve your right to file an objection to said accounts, you or your attorney must file a written appearance in said Court at Lawrence on or before the tenth day of November, 1980, the return day of this citation. You may upon written request by registered or certified mail to the fiduciary, or to the attorney for the fiduciary, obtain without cost a copy of said accounts. If you desire to object to any item of said accounts, you must, in addition to filing a written appearance as aforesaid, file within thirty days after said return day or within such other time as the Court upon motion may order a written statement of each such item together with the grounds for each objection thereto, a copy to be served upon the fiduciary pursuant to Mass. R. Civ. P. Rule 5.

Witness, ALBERT P. PETTORUTO, Esquire, First Judge of said Court, this eighth day of October 1980.

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth Now Showing New 1981 Models

America's answer to beating the pump, cars quality engineered by the new Chrysler Corporation, are on display now at Clark Chrysler-Plymouth, 273 South Union Street, Lawrence. See them in the showroom, take a test drive, and you'll take one home! There is a Chrysler or Plymouth model to suit your family and your budget.

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth is now featuring the exciting 1981 Plymouth Reliant K, America's first full line of fuel efficient, six passenger, front wheel drive cars. The totally new Reliant K has been designed from the ground up with one goal in mind, to be the best in Chrysler's history.

Chrysler engineers began with advanced front wheel drive for traction and maneuverability, then designed, especially for Reliant, an all new Trans-4 engine and an aerodynamically sound body. Their efforts resulted in a classically simple and efficient automobile - weight efficient, space efficient, power efficient - the vital components of fuel efficiency.

Chrysler Corporation has created a package of technological advances to make Plymouth Reliant not only fuel efficient, but easy to drive, simple to service, and comfortable to ride in. See these new Reliant K cars soon, available in many models, all with new safety features, corrosion protection and options galore.

If luxurious interiors and a traditional big car ride are your choice, see the elegant Chrysler New Yorker, Newport, Plymouth Gran Fury, and of course, the exciting Cordoba. New cars are backed by Chrysler Corporation's 30 day/1,000 mile satisfaction money back guarantee.

Clark Chrysler-Plymouth can answer your transportation needs with a beautiful new car (including the economy-minded little Horizon), or a fine reconditioned used vehicle. And you can still get a good buy on a new '80 car. Open weekdays 9 to 9, Saturdays 9 to 5. Tel. 688-6053.

Customer Service Representative

Part-Time - Flexible Hours

If you are looking for a job that fits your schedule, we have an interesting position with flexible hours. Our Customer Service Department is seeking an individual who would like to work part-time, Monday through Friday. You may work four or five consecutive hours anytime during their busiest hours from 10:00 a.m. to 4 p.m.

You will work with a CRT order-entry system, processing all incoming calls and will have extensive telephone contact with customers.

We offer excellent working conditions, good starting salaries, and a full range of benefits (for scheduled workweeks of 25 or more hours) including prorated paid holidays, paid sick leave, paid vacations and health and life insurance, with the opportunity to receive periodic merit increases.

Please call our Personnel Office for an appointment at 659-6000.

MOVING AND MONEY

Household moves costs money, but there's no reason why you should pay more money than you have to. Here's some helpful hints to help keep this cost from snowballing.

First, get estimates from several movers in your neighborhood. Then compare. Though tariffs are regulated by law, they do vary because there are several classes of carriers.

Make sure you get in writing an agreement on the declared valuation before you release your household goods, in other words, before he starts to load his van. To make sure your household goods are fully covered, you must declare their actual 100% cash value. If you declare a lesser amount, say 75% your goods are protected only to 75% of their value.

Let the movers do all the packing. Those boxes you pack yourself will be stamped "PBO". Those three letters can mean grief. They stand for "Packed by Owner", and any carton thus noted is exempt from carrier liability. It's on its own if the contents are damaged.

If there is anything we can do to help you in the field of real estate, please phone or drop in at THE HOWE AGENCY, 4 Punchard Ave., Andover. Phone: 475-5100. We're here to help.

legislative process, while the remaining half will have to come through cutting back inefficiencies and services in state and local government.

"There are going to have to be some tough decisions made at the local level (due to the Tuesday decision)," Cohen said, noting that over $2 million has to be cut in Andover's budget, alone. Lawrence will be losing $3 million.

Cohen said that on the bright side the state's economy is healthy, with the unemployment rate among the lowest in the country, along with continued industrial expansion and development within the state, with Andover an excellent example. Such things generate new revenues which will assist in dealing with the decision rendered on Tuesday.

In discussing the ramifications of Prop. 2½ with the leadership and others today, Cohen intends to point out, "its emphasis on features like sharp property tax reduction and full funding of state-mandated programs, the proposition provides the foundation for future policy.

Nevertheless, the legislature must assume the task of correcting drafting imperfections in the 2½ statute which make its literal implementation impossible. Moreover, conversations with our taxpaying neighbors throughout Massachusetts make us believe that their endorsement of 2½ is an expression of general rather than specific intent, and a mandate to elected officials of reasonably flexible proportions.

"Within the terms of this mandate, there is room for legislative initiative in the design of a modern tax structure for Massachusetts. We think the opportunity exists to enact a law which includes prin-

Students Support Anderson

Andover High School students bucked the conservative trend and elected third-party candidate John Anderson president during a mock election Monday.

Republican Ronald Reagan, however, came in a close second, with 244 votes to Anderson's 251.

President Jimmy Carter won 129 votes from the high school students.

Libertarian candidate Edward Clark won 16 votes at the high school, and socialist workers candidate DeBerry, 7 votes.

Unlike their parents, the students voted solidly against Proposition 2½, defeating that tax-cutting question by a vote of 422 to 231.

Ballot question three, proposed as an alternative to 2½, also won the students' ciples such as these:

A ceiling on the total burden imposed by state and local taxes combined;

A reduced role for the property tax in the mix of state and local levies permitted under this ceiling;

An increase in aid to cities and towns; The build-up of these aid funds partially by eliminating inefficiencies in state programs and partially by increased use of fair alternative revenue sources.

"This last idea is crucial. The dramatic cut in property taxes envisioned by Proposition 2½ cannot be accomplished without causing great human suffering unless another means of generating local aid is developed.

"For decades master tax plans have called in vain for greater use of flexible revenue sources. Now Proposition 2½'s approval creates an extraordinary occasion, a point of no return in the making of policy. Even as we strive to make existing programs more efficient and to direct the savings to municipalities, a portion of this increased aid must come from a streamlined tax structure.

support, by a vote of 439 to 230.

The high school students also favored James Shannon in the fifth congressional district, with 472 voting for the incumbent, and 165 for challenger William Sawyer.

"The fact of 2½'s passage has aspects of great promise, and in the coming months we will work to realize that great promise."
